PSALMS
OF DAVID
In METRE.

PSALM i. T. S.

HE man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear:
Nor led his life as sinners do, nor sat in scorners chair.
2 But in the law of God the Lord
doth let his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.
3 He shall be like the tree that grows fair by the river side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in his due time and tide:
Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well
that this man takes in hand.
4 So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgment stand upright:
Nor yet the sinners with the just,
shall come in place or sight.
6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known,
And eke the way of wicked men shall sure be overthrown.

PSALM ii. T. S.

WHY did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people mutie,
seeing all is but vain?
2 The Kings and Rulers of the earth conspire and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Son, which he amongst us sent.
3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.
4 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking stocks,
throughout the world so wide.
For in his wrath the Lord will say to them upon a day,
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say,

6 I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wot, Thou art my dear and only Son,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request,
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possest.

9 Thou shalt them bruise e'en with a mace,
as men under foot trod,
And as the potters sherd's shalt break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye O Kings and Rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd:
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear:
See that with reverence ye rejoice to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kiss, and eke embrace his bleiséd Son I say, Let in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath never so small,
shall kindle in his breft:
Oh then all they that truft in Christ shall happy be and blest.

PSALM iii. T. S.

O Lord how are my foes increst,
which vex me more and more?
2 They kill mine heart when as they say,
God can him not restore.
3 But thou (O Lord) art my defence,
when I am hard beset:
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou holdst up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry,
And he out of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.
5 I laid me down and quietly
I slept and rose again:
For why I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustain.

Psalm iv, v, vi.

- 1 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid:
- 2 For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.
- 3 Rise up therefore, save me my God,
for now to thee I call,
- 4 For thou hast broke the cheeks and teeth
of those wicked men all.
- 5 Salvation only doth belong to thee O Lord above:
- 6 Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

PSALM iv. T. S.

- 1 O God that art my righteousness,
Lord hear me when I call.
- 2 Thou hast set me at liberty
when I was bound and thrall.
- 3 Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
and grant me my request;
- 4 For unto thee unceasantly,
to cry I will not rest.
- 5 O mortal men how long will ye my glory thus despise?
- 6 Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?
- 7 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse:
- 8 And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.
- 9 Sin not, but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:
- 10 And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert.
- 11 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say:
- 12 And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.
- 13 The greater sort crave worldly goods
and riches do embrace?
- 14 But Lord grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.
- 15 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyful and more glad,
- 16 Then they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.
- 17 Is peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep:
- 18 For thou only wilt me, O Lord, alone in safety keep.

PSALM v. T. S.

- 1 Ncline thine ears unto thy words,
O Lord my plaint consider:
- 2 And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
- 3 Hear me beseeche, Lord tarry not,
for I will have respect,
- 4 My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.
- 5 And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone:
- 6 Thou art not pleased with wickedness,
and ill with thee dwells none,
- 7 And in thy sight shall never stand
those furious foals, O Lord:

- 8 Vain workers of iniquity thou hast always abhor'd.
- 9 The lyars and the flatterers thou shalt destroy them than;
- 10 And God will hate the blood-thirsty,
and the deceitful man.
- 11 Therefore will I come to thine house
trusting upon thy grace:
- 12 And reverently will worship thee
toward thine holy place,
- 13 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:
- 14 And eke the way that I shall walk,
before my face disclose.
- 15 For in their mouths there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain:
- 16 Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glote and fain.
- 17 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought:
- 18 Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.
- 19 But those that put their trust in thee
let them be glad always;
- 20 And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy Name the praise.
- 21 For thou with favour will encrast
the just and righteous still:
- 22 And with thy grace as with a shield,
defend him from a' ill.

PSALM vi. T. S.

- 1 Ord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire:
- 2 Never correct me in thy rage,
O Lord I thee desire;
- 3 For I am weak, therefore, O Lord,
of mercy me forbear:
- 4 And heal me Lord, for why thou know'st
my bones do quake for fear.
- 5 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently,
- 6 But, Lord, how long will thou delay,
to cure my misery?
- 7 Lord turn thee to thy wond'rous grace,
my silly soul up take:
- 8 O save me, nor for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.
- 9 For why? no man among the dead
remembereth thee one whit:
- 10 Or who shall worship thee (O Lord)
in the infernal pit?
- 11 So grievous is my plaint and mone,
that I wax wondrous faint:
- 12 All the night long I wash my bed
with tears of my complaint.
- 13 My sight is dim, and waxeth old with anguish of my heart:
- 14 For fear of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.
- 15 But now away from me all ye that work iniquity:
- 16 For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.
- 17 He heard not only the request
and prayer of my heart;

But

Psalm viii, viii, ix.

3

8 But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part :
9 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soon defame :
10 And suddenly confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

PSALM viii. T. S.

O Lord my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee :
Save me from them that me pursue ;
and eke deliver me,
2 Lest like a Lion he me tear,
and rend in pieces small :
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.
3 O Lord my God if I have done
the thing that is not right :
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight.
4 Or to my friend's reward ill,
or left him in distress,
Which the pursued most cruelly,
and hated me caulest.
5 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.
6 Start up O Lord now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain :
Perform the Kingdom promised to me which wrong sustain.
7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.
8 And as thou art of all men judge,
O Lord now judge thou me,
According to my righteouscnes,
and mine integritie.

The Second Part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide :
By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and defir'd.
10 I take my help to come of God
in all my pain or smart :
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.
11 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power :
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.
12 Except he change his mind, I die,
for even as he should smite :
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.
13 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warp.
14 But lo, though he in travel b.
of his devilish forecast :
And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.

15 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother :
But he shall fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.
16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred :
And all the mischief that he wroughts shall fall upon his head.
17 I will give thanks to God therefore,
that judgeth righteously :
And with my song will praise the name of him that is most high.

PSALM ix. T. S.

O God our Lord how wonderful are thy works every where :
Whose fame surmounts in dignity,
above the heavens clear.
2 Even by the mouths of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes :
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.
3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand :
The Sun, the Moon, and all the Stars
in order as they stand :
4 What thing is man (Lord) think I then that thou dost him remember ?
Or what is mans potterity,
that thou doest it consider ?
5 For thou hast made him little less than Angels in deawee :
And thou hast crowned him also with glory and dignity.
6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be Lord of all thy works of wonder :
And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.
7 As sheep and neat, and all beautes else
that in the fields do feed :
8 Fowls of the air, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.
9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord :
How famous and how wonderful are thy works through the world ?

PSALM ix. T. S.

With heart and mouth unto the Lord will I sing laud and praise :
And speake of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare always.
2 I will be glad, and much rejoice,
in thee O God most high :
And make my songs extol thy Name
above the starry skie.
3 For that my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight :
They fall down flat, and are destroy'd
by thy great power and might.
4 Thou hast revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge :
Thou doest with justice hear my cause,
most like a righteous judge.
5 Thou doest rebuke the heathen folks
and wicked so confound,

A 3

That

That afterwards the memory
of them cannot be found.

- 6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their towns destroy'd :
Thou hast their fame with them defac'd,
through all the world so wide.
7 Know now that he which is above
for evermore shall reign,
And in the seat of equity
true judgment will maintain.
8 With justice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight :
And so will yield with equity
to every man his right.
9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be opprest :
He is in all adversty
their refuge and their rest.
10 And they that know thy holy Name
therefore shall trust in thee :
For thou forgiest not their sin
in their necessity.

The second Part.

- 11 Sing Psalms therefore unto the Lord,
that dwells in Sion hill : Publish among all nations
his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindful of the blood of those that be opprest :
Forgettings not th'afflicted heart
that seeks to him for rest.
13 Have mercy Lord on me poor wretch,
whose enemies still remain :
Which from the gates of death art wont
to raise me up again.
14 In Sion that I might set forth thy praise with heart and voice :
And that in thy salvation, Lord,
my soul might still rejoice.
15 The heathen stick fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd :
And in the net that they did set,
their own feet fast are snar'd.
16 God shews his judgments w were good for every man to mark :
When as ye see the wicked man lie trap d in his own wark.
17 The wicked and deceitful men go down to hell for ever :
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poor mans grief and pain :
The patient people never look for help of God in vain.
19 O Lord arise lest men prevail, that be of worldly might :
And let the heathen folk receive,
their judgment in thy sight.
20 Lord strike such terror, fear, and dread
into the hearts of them :
That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortal men.

PSALM x. T. 3.

- W hat is the cause that thou, O Lord,
art now so far from thine ?
And keepest clost thy countenance
from us this troublous time ?
2 The poor do perish by the proud and wicked mens delire :
Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves conspire.
3 For in the lust of his own heart
th' ungodly doth delight,
So doth the wicked praise himself,
and doth the Lord despise.
4 He is so proud that right and wrong he setteth all apart :
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.
5 Because his ways do prosper still,
he doth thy laws negle^t :
And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.
6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread, lest mine estate should change :
And why ? for all adversty
to him is very strange.
7 His mouth is full of cursedness,
of fraud, deceit, and guile :
Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and travel all the while.
8 He lieth hid in ways and holes,
to slay the innocent :
Against the poor that pais him by,
his crivel eyes are bent.
9 And like a Lion privily lies lurking in his den :
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.
10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth down, I say :
So are great heaps of poor men made by his strong power his prey.

The second Part.

- 11 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he :
therefore I may be bold :
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
12 Arise, O Lord, O God in whom the poor mans hope doth rest :
Lift up thy hand, forget not Lord
the poor that be opprest.
13 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not abhor it ?
To hear the w cled in their heart
say, tush thou car'st not for it ?
14 But thou seest all their wickedness
and well dost understand, That friendles and poor fatherless
are left into thy hand.
15 Of wicked and malicious men,
they break the power for ever :
That they with their iniquity may perish altogether.

Psalm xi; xii; xiii; xiv.

- 16 The Lord shall reign for evermore,
as King and God alone :
And he will chace the heathen folk,
out of the land each one.
17 Thou hear'st (O Lord) the poor mans their prayer and request : (plaint, Their hearts thou wilt confirm until thine ears to hear be prest.
18 To judge the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right :
That they may be no more opprest
by men of worldly might.

PSALM xi. T. S.

- 1 Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soul until ?
Fly hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill.
2 Behold the wicked bend their bows,
and make their arrows prett,
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmless breft.
3 Of worldly hope all stays were shrunk,
and clearly brought to nought :
Alas the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought !
4 But he that in his Temple is,
most holy and most high,
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royal Majestie,
The poor and simple mans estate
considereth in his mind :
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind:
5 And with a cheerful countenance
the righteous man will use :
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief muse.
6 And on the sinners caitfeth snares,
as thick as any rain :
Fire and brimstone and whirlwinds thick,
appointed for their pain.
7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace :
And to the just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

PSALM xii. T. S.

- Help Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay :
For faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.
2 Who so doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain :
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lye, and fain.
3 But flattering and deceitful lips,
and tongues that be so stout,
To ipeak proud words, and make great
the Lord soon cuts them out. (brags) 4 For they say still we will prevail,
our tongues shall us extol :
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak,
what Lord shall us control ?

- 5 But for the great complaint and cry
of poor and men opprest :
Arise will I, now faith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.
6 Gods word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tri'd :
And hath no less than seven times
in fire been purifi'd.
7 Now is thy promise is to help,
Lord keep thy promise then :
And save us now and evermore,
from this ill kind of men.
8 For now this wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold :
When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extol'd.

PSALM xiii. T. S.

- HOW long wilt thou forget me Lord,
shall I ne'er be remembred ?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended ?
2 In heart and mind how long shall I with care tormented be ?
How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me ?
3 Behold me now, my Lord my God,
and hear me sore opprest.
Lighten mine eyes lest that I sleep,
as one by death possest.
4 Lest that mine enemies say to me,
behold I do prevail :
Lest they so that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.
5 But from thy mercy and goodness
my hope shall never start,
In thy relief and saving health,
right glad shall be my heart.
6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing,
Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

PSALM xiv. T. S.

- THERE is no God, as foolish men affirm in their mad mood :
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.
2 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankind.
And saw not one that fought indeed
the living God to find.
3 They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none,
That in the world did any good,
I say, there was not one.
4 Is all their judgment so far lost,
that all work mischief still ?
Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will ?
5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall :
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all.
6 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
to their reproach and shame :

Psalm xv., xvi., xvii.

Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his Name.

- 7 But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfil Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Zion hill?
8 Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led :
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM xv. T. S.

- O Lord within thy Tabernacle, who shall inhabit still ?
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill ?
2 The man whose life is uncorrupt, whose works are just and straight :
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.
3 None of his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods, or name :
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might impair the same.
4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men :
But those that love and fear the Lord,
he maketh much of them.
5 His oath and all his promises that keepeth faithfully :
Although he make his covenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.
6 That putteth not to usury
his money and his coin :
Nor for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or else perjuri.
7 Who so doth all things as you see that here is to be done :
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

PSALM xvi. T. S.

- Lord keep me, for I trust in thee,
and do confess indeed,
Thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no need.
2 I give my goods unto the Saints
that in the world do dwell :
And namely to the faithful flock
in virtue that excel.
3 They shall heap sorrow on their heads which run as they were mad
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.
4 As for their bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.
5 For why ? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance :
And thou art he that doft maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.
6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excel,

Mine heritage assign'd to me,
dost please me wondrous well.

- 7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right :
For by his means my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.
8 I set the Lord still in my fight,
and trust him over all :
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

- 9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoice together :
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.
10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave,
for Lord thou lovest me :
Nor yet wilt give thy Holy One, corruption for to see.
11 But wilt me teach the way to life
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

PSALM xvii. T. S.

- O Lord give ear to my just cause,
attend when I complain :
And hear the prayer that I put forth,
with lips that do not fain.
2 And let the judgment of my cause,
proceed always from thee :
And let thine eyes behold and clear
this my simplicity.
3 Thou hast well tri'd me in the night,
and yet could'st nothing find,
That I have spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my mind.
4 As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have refrained still.
5 Then in thy paths that be most pale stay me Lord and preserve :
That from the way wherein I walk,
my steps may never swerve.
6 For I do call to thee O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid :
Then hear my prayer and weigh right well
the words that I have said.
7 O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee :
Declare thy strength on them that spurn against thy Majesty.
8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep the apple of thine eye :
And under covert of thy wings defend me secretly.

The Second Part.

- 9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy :
And from my foes that go about my soul for to destroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth
so full are they and fat,

That

That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.
11 They lie in wait where I should pass,
with craft me to confound :
And misusing mischief in their minds to cast me to the ground.
12 Much like a Lion greedy that would his prey embrace :
Or lurking like a Lions whelp,
within some secret place.
13 Up Lord, in haste prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet :
Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.
14 Deliver me Lord by thy power,
out of these tyrants hands :
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.
15 I mean from worldly men, to whom all worldly goods are rife :
That have no hope nor part of joy,
but in this present life.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill st
with pleasure to their mind :
Their children have enough and leave to theirs the rest behind.
17 But I shal with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face :
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

PSALM xviii. T.S.

O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee :
Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.
2 My God, my Rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth :
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the horn of all my health.
3 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serv'd ;
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserv'd.
4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where :
The flowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.
5 The sile and subtil snares of hell
were round about me set :
And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.
6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace
And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.
7 Such is his power, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake :
Yea the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake.
8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire :
And from his mouth came kindled coals
of most consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
and bow'd the heavens high :
And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the sky.
10 On Cherubs and on Cherubims full royally he rode :
And on the wings of all the winds came flying all abroad.

The second Part.

11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place :
With waters black and airy clouds environed he was.
12 But when the presence of his face in brightness shall appear :
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come had and coles of fire.
13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts dissolve them here and there :
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.
14 Lord at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding clear,
The springs and the foundations,
of all the world appear.
15 And from above the Lord sent down to fetch me from below :
And pluck'd me out of waters great
that would me overflow.
16 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall ;
Yea from such foes as were too strong for me to deal withal.
17 They did prevent me to oppress in time of my great grief
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.
18 He brought me forth in open pleasure
whereas I might be free :
And kept me safe because he had a favour unto me.
19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard,
And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward.
20 For that I walked in his ways,
and in his paths have trod :
And have not sinned wickedly against my Lord and God.

The third Part.

21 But evermore I have respect to his law and decree :
His statutes and commandement
I cast not out from me.
22 But pure, and clean, and uncorrupt
appear'd before his face :
And did refrain from wickedness
and sin in any case.
23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright,
And to the cleanness of my hands
appearing in his sight.
24 For Lord with him that holy is will thou be holy too,

And with the good and vertuous men
right vertuously wilt do.

25 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt reserve :

And thou wilt use the wicked men,
as wicked men deserve.

26 For thou doft save the simple folk in trouble when they lie :
And doft bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will light my candle so, that it shall shine full bright :
The Lord my God will make also my darkness to be light.

28 For by thy help an host of men discomfit Lord I shall :
By thee I scale and over-leap
the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the ways of God,
his word is purely try'd :
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord ?
for other there is none :
Or else who is omnipotent saving our God alone ?

The fourth Part.

31 The God that girdeth me with strength is he that I do mean :
That all the ways wherein I walk,
did evermore keep clean.

32 That made my feet like to the Harts,
in swiftness of my pace :
And for my surety brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands
to battle and to fight :
To break in sunder bars of bras,
he gave mine arms the might.
34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower :
Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.

35 And under me thou makest plain the way where I should walk :
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a ball.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take my foes that me annoy'd :
And from the field do not return till they be all destroy'd.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes that they can rise no more :

For as my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all so sore.

38 Fonthou dost gird me with thy strength to war in such a wife :
That they be all scattered abroad,
that up against me rise.

39 Lord thou hast put into my hands
my mortal enemies yoke :
And all my foes thou dost divide
in sunder with thy stroak.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave ear,
nor holp them with relief :
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth Part.

41 And still like dust before the wind,
I drive them under feet :
And sweep them out like filthy clay,
that sticketh in the street.

42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk that still in strife are led.
And thou doft of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve :
And at the first obey my word ;
whereas mine own will swerve.

44 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light :
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise :
That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he always.

46 For God it is that gave me power revenged for to be :
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe delivered me,
and set me above those That cruel and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.

48 And for this caufe, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall :
And sing out praises to thy Name,
among the Gentiles all :

49 That gavest great prosperity unto the King I say :
To David thine anointed King
and to his seed for ay.

PSALM xix. T. S.

THE heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glory of God omnipotent, his works and what they are.

2 The wondrous works of God appear
by every days success :
The nights likewise which their race run,
the self-same thing express.

3 There is no language, tongue, or speech
where their sound is not heard :
In all the earth and coasts thereof their knowledge is conferr'd.

4 In them the Lord made for the Sun
a place of great renown :
Who like a bridegroom ready trim'd,
doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth hafte to take in hand, some noble enterprize.

Psalm xx, xxi, xxiij.

- 6 And all the siste from end to end he compassest about :
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will find it out.
7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his Covenant sure :
Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure ?
8 Just are the Lords commandements, and glad both heart and mind :
His precepts pure, and giveth light to eyes that be full blind.
9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether :
10 And more to be embrac'd alway
than fined gold I say :
The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.
11 By them thy servant is forewarn'd to have God in regard :
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life ?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most rife.
13 And keep me that presumptuous sins prevail not over me :
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.
14 Accept my mouth, and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one :
For my Re-leemer and my strength
O Lord thou art alone.

PSALM xx. T. S.

- In trouble and adversity,
the Lord God hear thee still :
The Majestie of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.
2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need :
And so in Sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.
3 Rememb'reng well the sacrifice,
that now to him is done :
And so receive right thankfully,
thy burnt-offerings each one.
4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant unto thee :
And all thy counsel and device,
full well perform may he.
5 We shall rejoice when thou us sav'st,
and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.
6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace :
And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.
7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust :

- But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.
8 They fall down flat, but we do rise and stand up stedfastly :
9 Now save and help us Lord and King
on thee when we do cry.

PSALM xxi. T. S.

- O Lord how joyful is the King,
in thy strength and thy power :
How vehemently doth he rejoice in thee his Saviour ?
2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire :
To him nothing thou hast deni'd,
of that he did require.
3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts and blessings manifold :
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.
4 And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou mad'st him sure
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.
5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid :
Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.
6 Thou wilt give him felicity,
that never shall decay :
And with thy cheerful countenance
wilt comfort him alway.
7 For why ? the King deeth strongly trust
in God for to prevail :
Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.
8 But let thine enemies feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand :
Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.
9 And like an oven burn them Lord,
in fiery flame and fume :
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou shalt root out of the earth their fruit that should increase :
And from the number of thy folk their seed shall end and cease.
11 For why ? much mischief did they muse against thy holy Name :
Yet did they fail and had no power
for to perform the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set in a most open place :
And charge thy bow-strings readily against thine enemies face.
13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore,
in thy strength every hour :
So shall we sing right solemnly, praising thy might and power.

PSALM xxiij. T. S.

- O God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly.

And helpeft not when I do make my great complaint and cry ?
a To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call :
 Cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.
b Even thou that in thy Sanctuary,
and holy place doft dwell :
 Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.
c And he in whom our fathers old had all their hope for ever :
 And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.
d They were delivered ever when they called on thy Name :
 And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.
e But I am now become a worm,
more like than any man :
 A scut-taught whom the people scorn,
with all the spite they can.
f All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way :
 They grin, they mow, they nod their heads and on this wise they say :
g This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love :
 Set him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.
h But Lord out of my mothers womb,
I came by thy behest :
 Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her brest,
i I was committed from my birth,
with thee to have abode :
 Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou haft beene e're my God.

The seconde Part.

j Then Lord depart not now from me,
in this my present grief :
 Since I haue none to be my help,
my succour and relief.
k So many bulls do compass me,
that be full strong of head :
 Yea bulls so fat, as though they had in Bashan field been fed.
l They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay :
 Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.
m But I drop down like water shad,
my joints in sunder break :
 My heart doth in my body melt,
like wax against the heat.
n And like a potsherdr drith my strength,
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought readie of death at last.
o And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsel etc
 Conspire against me curstely,
they pierce my hands and feet.

p I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have told ;
 Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.
q My garments they divided alike
in parts among them all :
 And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.
r Therefore I pray thee be not far from me at my great need :
 But rather fitth thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speed.
s And from the sword Lord save my soul
by thy might and thy power :
 And keep my soul thy darling dear
from dogs that would devour.
t And from the Lions mouth that would me all in sun ier shiver ;
 And from the horns of Unicorns
Lord safetly me deliver.
u Then shall I to my brethren all thy Majestie record :
 And in thy Church shall praise the Name of thee the living Lord.

The third Part.

v All ye that fear him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him :
 And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.
w For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awry
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their cry.
x Among the folk that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for letting forth thy Name.
y The poor shall eat and be suffic'd,
and those that do endeavour
To know the Lord, shall praise his Name,
their hearts shall live for ever.
z All coasts of th' earth shall praise the
and turn to him for grace : (Lord,
 The heathen folk shall worship him
before his bleffed face.
aa The Kingdom of the heathen folks
the Lord shall have therefore :
 And he shall be their governour,
and King for evermore.
bb The rich men of his goodly gifts,
shall feed and taste also :
 And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
cc And all that shall go down to dust
of life by him shall taste :
 My seed shall serue and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.
dd My seed shall plainly shew to them,
that shall be born hereafter,
 His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

Psalm xxiiij, xxiv, xxv.

11

PSALM xxiiij. W. W.

THE Lord is only my suppor^t:
and he that doth me feed.
How can I then lack any thing,
whereof I stand in need?
2 He doth me fold in coats most safe,
the tender grases fast by:
And after drives me to the streams
which run most pleasantly.
3 And when I feel my self near lost,
then dorh he me hope take:
Conducting me in his right paths,
even for his own Names sake.
4 And though I were even at deaths door
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherds crook,
I am comforted still.
5 Thou haft my table richly deck'd,
in despight of my foe:
Thou haft my head with balme refresh'd;
my cup doth overflow.
6 And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same by T. S.

MY Shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need:
In pastures fair with waters calm,
he sets me for to feed.
2 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my mind in frame
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy Name.
3 Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod, thy staff dorh comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou haft (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.
5 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shew'd to me:
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

PSALM xxiv. J. H.

THE earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture:
Yea his is all the world; and all that therein doth endire.
2 For he hath faintly founded it,
above the seas to stand:
And laid alow the liquid floods,
so flow beneath the land.
3 For who is he O Lord that shall ascend into thy hill?
Or pass into thy holy place,
there to continue still.
4 Whose hands are harmless, and whose no spot there doth defile.
His soul not set on vanity,
who hath not sworn to guile.

5 Him that is such an one, the Lord shall place in blisful plignt:
And God his God and Saviour shall yield to him his right.

6 This is the brood of travellers,
in seeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Iraelites,
in that time of his race.

7 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.

8 Who is the King of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord:
The mighty Lord in battel stroue,
and trial of the sword.

9 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state, 10 Who is the King of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:
The Kingdom and the royalty of glorious state is his.

PSALM xxv. T. S.

ILIFT my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.

2 Let not my foes rejoice,
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrown,
that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them befall,
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right ways unto me Lord defcry.

4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour
on thee I wait awaie.

5 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee, Lord, remember,
And eke thy pity plentiful
for they have been for ever.

6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord have me in thy mind.

7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will tinnen ~~me~~
and such as go aside.

8 The humble he will reche
his precepts for to keep:
He wil direct in all his ways,
the lowly and the meek.

9 For all the ways of God
are truth and mercy both.

Psalm xxvi, xxvii.

To them that keep his Testament,
the witness of his truth.

The second Part.

- 10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for its wondrous great 11 Who so doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct :
To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.
12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand :
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the Land.
13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent :
And unto them he doth declare his Will and Testament.
14 Mine eyes and eke my heart to him I will advance :
That pluck'd my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.
15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my moan :
For I am poor and desolate,
and comfortless alone.
16 The troubles of my heart,
are multipli'd indeed : Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.
17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain :
Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me clean again.
18 O Lord behold my foes,
How they do still increate :
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.
19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me :
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.
20 I let my simple puteness me from my enemies offend :
Because I look as one of thine
that thou shouldest me defend.
21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

PSALM xxvi. T. S.

- Lord be my judge, and thou shalt see,
my paths be right and plain :
I trust in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain.
2. Prove me my God, I thee desire,
my ways to search and try :
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart epy.
3. Thy goodness laid before my face,
I durst behold always,

For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my days.

4 I do not lust to haunt or use with men whose deeds are vain ;
To come in houſe I do refuse,
with the deceitful train.

5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise :
I do not once to them resort,
that hurtful things devise.

6 My hands I wash, and do proceed in works to walk upright :
Then to thine Altar I make speed
to offer there in fight.

7 That I may speak and preach the praise that doth belong to thee :
And so declare how wondrous ways
thou hast been good to me.
8 O God thy houſe I love most dear,
to me it doth excel :
I have delight, and would be near whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O flint not up my soul with them,
in sin that take their fill :
Nor yet my life among those men,
that feck much blood to spill. (guttle, 10 Whole hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full :
And their right hand with wrench & wile
for bribes doth pluck and pull.

11 But I in righteousness intend my time and days to serve :
Have mercy Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve.
12 My foot is staid for all assayes,
it standeth well and right :
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.

PSALM xxvii. J. H.

THE Lord is both my health and light,
shall man make me dismayed ?
Sith God doth give me strength and might why should I be afraid ?

2 While that my foes with all their strength
begin with me to brawl,
And thinkt to eat me up at length,
themselves have caught the fall.

3 Though they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid :
In battle fight if they will try ,
I trust in God for aid.

4 One thing of God I do require,
that he would not deny :
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply.

5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell,
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well.

6 In time of dread he shall me hide within his place most pure :
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

Psalm xxviiiij, xxix, xxx.

13

- 7 At length I know the Lords good grace
shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foil and clean deface,
that compass me about.
8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
With Psalms and Songs I will apply to laud the Lord always.

The second Part.

- 9 Lord hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I call;
Have mercy Lord on me opprest,
and send me help withal.
10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace:
Then seek my face, faist thou to me,
Lord I will seek thy face.
11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.
12 My parents both their son forsook,
and cast me off at large:
And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.
13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right.
For fear of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
14 Do not betake me to the will of them that be my foes;
For they surmise against me still,
false witness to depose.
15 My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see in life that aye shall last.
16 Trust still in God, whose whole thou art,
his will abide thou must:
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

PSALM xxviiiij. T. S.

- THOU art (O Lord) my strength and stay
the succor which I crave:
Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.
2 The voice of thy suppliant hear that unto thee doth cry:
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy Aire most high.
3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert:
That speak right fair unto their friends,
but think full ill in heart.
4 According to their handy-work,
as they deserve indeed:
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.
5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his law ne yet his lore:
Therefore will he them and their seed,
destroy for evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord,
how great a cause have I.

My voice, my prayer, and my complaint that heard so willingly?

- 7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distress:
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confess,
8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:
The health and the salvation of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord, bless, guide, and preserve:
Increase them Lord and rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

PSALM xxix. T. S.

Give to the Lord ye Potentates,
ye Rulers of the world.
Give ye all praise, honour, and strength unto the living Lord.

- 2 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone:
Worship him in his Majesty within his holy throne.
3 His voice doth rule the waters all even as himself doth please:
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the seas, 4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the Cedar-trees so long:
The Cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong.
6 And makes them leap like as a Calf,
or else the Unicorn,
Not only trees, but mountains great whereon the trees are born.

- 7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wildernes:
It makes the desert quake for fear that called is Cadish.
8 It make the Hinds for fear to calve,
and makes the coverts plain:
Then in his Temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.
9 The Lord was set above the floods, ruling the raging sea.
So shall he reign as Lord and King,
for ever and for aye.
10 The Lord will give his people power
in virtue to increase:
The Lord will bless his chosen flock with everlasting peace.

PSALM xxx. J. H.

ALL laud and praise with heart & voice,
O Lord I give to thee:
Which didst not make my foes rejoice
but hast exalted me.

- 2 O Lord my God to thee I cry'd
in all my pain and grief:

Tene.

Psalm xxxi.

Thou gav'st an ear and didst provide to ease me with relief.

5 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back
my soul from hell to save:
Thou didst revive when strength did lack
and kepp'd me from the grave, 6 Sing praise ye Saints that prove and see
the goodness of the Lord;
In memory of his Majesty
rejoys with one accord.

1 For why? his anger but a space
doth last and slack again:
But in his favour and his grace always doth life remain.
Though gripes of grief and pangs full fore shall lodge with us all night:
The Lord to joy shall us restore before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say:
Tush, I am fare to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.
7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace
hadst sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my mind was fore dismaird.

8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night, 9 What gain is in my blood (said I)
if death destroy my days?
Both dust declare thy Majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise?
10 Wherefore my God some pity take,
O Lord I thee desire:
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require.
11 Then didst thou turn my grief and woe
into a cheerful voice,
The mourning weed thou took'st me fro
and mad'st me to rejoice.
12 Wherefore my soul unceasantly shall sing unto thy praise.
My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks always.

PSALM xxxi. J. H.

1 O Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame,
As thou art just deliver me,
and set me quite from blame.
2 Hear me O God, and that anon,
to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.
3 For why? as stony thy strength is tri'd,
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy Name sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.
4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare
which they for me have laid:

Thou art my strength and all my case
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit my spirit which is thy due.
For why? thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.
6 I hate such folk as will not part from things to be abhor'd:
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.
7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth exceed:
Thou seest when ought would me annoy
and know'st my soul full well.
8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me overcharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second Part.

9 Great grief O Lord doth me affil,
some pity on me take:
Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail
my womb for woe doth ake.
10 My life is worn with grief and pain
my years in woe are past:
My strength is gone, and through disdain
my bones corrupt and wast.
11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismaird:
My neighbours and my kinsmen born,
to see me are afraid.
12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they find,
as in a broken pot.
13 I heard the brags of all the roar,
their threats my mind did fray:
How they conspir'd and went about to take my life away.
14 But Lord I trust in thee for aid,
not to be over-trod:
For I confess and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.
15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.
16 To me thy servant (Lord) express,
and shew thy joyful face:
And save me Lord for thy goodness,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third Part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked bear the shame,
and in their grave to fail.
18 O Lord make dumb their lips on right
which are addict to lies;
And cruelly with pride and spight against the just devise.
19 O how great good hast thou in store laid up full safe for them.

Psalm xxxij, xxxiiij.

15

That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sons of men !
20 Thy presence shall them fence & guide
from all proud brags and wrongs :
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

- 21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so far :
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of war.
- 22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore opprest :
Lo I was clean cast out of sight,
yet heardit thou my request.
- 23 Ye Saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithful he doth guide :
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
- 24 Be strong and God will stay your heart,
be bold and have a lust :
For sure the Lord will take your part,
fith ye in him do trust.

PSALM xxxij. T. S.

THIS man is blest whose wickedness
the Lord hath clean remitted :
And he whose sin and wickedness
is hid and also covered.
2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin :
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.
3 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraint :
My bones did wear and waste away
with daily moan and plaint.
4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my blood and humours moist
to drineis did convert.
5 I did therefore confess my faults,
and all my sins discover,
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins pass over.
6 The humble man shall pray therefore and seek thee in due time :
So that the floods of waters great shall have no power on him.
7 When trouble and adversity
do compas me about :
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou doft rid me our.
8 Come hither and I will thee teach how thou shalt walk aright ;
I will thee guide as I my self have learn'd by proof and fight.
9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule :
Whose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain :
But unto him that trusts in God,
his goodness shall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice :
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoice.

PSALM xxxiiij. J. H.

- YE righteous in the Lord rejoice,
it is a seemly sight,
That upright men with thankful voice should praise the Lord of might.
- 2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in Psalms and pleasant things ;
With Lute and Instrument ameng,
that soundeth with ten strings.
- 3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise :
- 4 For why ? his word is ever true,
his works and all his ways.
- 5 To judgment, equity and right,
he hath a great good will :
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.
- 6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought :
Their hosts and powers every one his breath to pass hath brought.
- 7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore :
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.
- 8 All men on earth both least and last fear God and keep his Law :
Ye that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.
- 9 What he commanded wrought it was
at once with present speed :
What he doth will is brought to pass,
with full effect indeed.
- 10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought ;
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.
- 11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage :
The motion of his mind and will take place in every age.

The Second Part.

- 12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known :
Whom he doth chuse of meer accord,
to take them as his own.
- 13 The Lord from heaven cast his light
on men mortal by birth :
- 14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers on the earth.
- 15 The Lord I say whose hand hath wrung
mans heart, and doth it frame.
For he alone doth know the thought and working of the same.
- 16 A King that tryseth in his host
shall nought prevail at length :
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.

7 The troops of hersemen eke shall fall,
their sturdy steeds shall sterre :
The strength of herse shall not prevail,
the rider to preserve.

8 But lo the eyes of God intend and watch to aid the just :
With such as fear him to offend
and on his goodness trust.

9 That he of death and great distress
may set their souls from dread ;
And if that dearth their land opprest,
in hunger them to feed.

10 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay,
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

11 Our soul in God hath joy and game, rejoycing in his might :
For why? in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.

12 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord, still present with us be :
As we alwayes with one accord,
do only trust in thee.

PSALM xxxiv. T. S.

I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord alwayes :
And eke my mouth for evermore shall speak unto his prafe.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in foul and eke in voice :
That humble men and mortifi'd
may hear and so rejoice.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
With me the living Lord :
And let us now exalt his Name together with one accord.

4 For I my self besought the Lord,
be answered me again :
And me deliver'd incontinent,
from all my fear and pain.

5 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear,
Their countenance shall not be dash't,
they need it not to fear.

6 This silly wretch for some relief,
unto the Lord did call :
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place :
To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just :
O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust.

9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones
above all earthly thing :
For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

10 The Lions shall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much :

But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second Part.

11 Come near therefore my children dear
and to my word give ear :
I shall ye teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord shoud fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long and lead a blefied life ?

13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed :
Inquire for peace and r ghteousness,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why? the eyes of God above,
upon the just are bent :
His ears likewise do hear the plaint
of the poor innocent.

16 But he dash-frown and bend his brows
upon the wicked train :
And cuts away the memory,
that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,
That out of pain and misery forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kind and straight at hand to such as be contrite :
He saves also the sorrowful,
the poor and meek in sprite.

19 Full many be the miseries that righteous men do suffer :
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep their very bones alway :
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The fin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought :
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound.
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

PSALM xxxv. T. S.

I Ord plead my cause against my foes, confound their force and might :
Fight on my part against all those that seek with me to fig' t.

2 Lay hand upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armour dres.
Stand up for me, and fight the field,
to help me from distress.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way
mine enemies to withstand,
That thou unto my soul maist say,
Lo, I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that seek my soul to spill :

Let them turn back and flee with shame
that think to work me ill.
5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as wind doth drive the dust:
And that the Angel of our God,
their might away may thrust.
6 Let all their ways be void of light,
and slippery like to fall:
And send thine Angel with thy might
to persecute them all.
7 For why? without my fault they have in secret set their gin:
And for no cause have dig'd a cave,
to take my soul therein.
8 When they think least and have no care
O Lord destroy them all:
Let them be trap't in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.
9 And let my soul with heart and voice
In God have joy and wealth;
That in the Lord I may rejoice,
and in his saving health.
10 And then my bones shall speak and say,
my parts shall all agree:
O Lord though they do seem full gay,
what one is like to thee?

The second Part.

11 Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poor from wicked men
that spott and do them wrong.
12 My cruel foes against me rise,
to witness things untrue:
And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.
13 Where I to them did owe good will,
they quit me with disdain:
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain. (fore 14 When they were sick I mourn'd there-and clad my self in sack:
With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.
15 As they had been my brethren dear
I did my self behave:
As one that maketh woful cheer
about his mothers grave.
16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout:
Yea, abject slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and cheeks full stout.
17 The belly-gods and flattering trains
that all good things deride:
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.
18 Lord why wilt thou so long forbear,
why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soul, mine only dear,
out of these lions claws.
19 And then will I give thanks to thee,
before the Church always:
And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor let them wink or turn their eyes,
that cauleis me assault.

The third Part.

21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue:
They still consult, and would betray
all those that peace ensue.
22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they sneer:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.
23 But Lord thou seest what waysthey take,
cease not my grief to mend:
Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.
24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right:
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.
25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free:
And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me.
26 Let not their hearts rejoice and cry,
There, there, all goeth trim:
Nor give them cause to say on high
we have our will on him.
27 Confound them with rebuke and shame
that joy when I do mourn:
And pay them home with spite and blame
that brag at me with scorn.
28 Let them be glad and eke rejoice,
which love mine upright way,
And they all times with heart and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say, 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excel,
for why? he doth delight
To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousness to praise:
Unto my Lord my God will I sing laud and praise always.

PSALM xxxvi. J. H.

THE wicked with his works unjust
doth thus periwade his heart:
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his fear is set apart.
2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began:
So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.
3 His words are wicked, vile, and naughty,
his tongue no truth doth tell,
Yet at no hand will he be taught which way he may do well. (muse 4 When he should sleep, then doth he his mischiefs to fulfil:
No wicked ways doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill. § but 5 But Lord thy goodness, doth ascend,

above the heavens high,
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy skie.
6 Much more than hills so high and steep
thy justice is expref't :
Thy judgment like to seas most deep,
thou sav'it both man and beast.
7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God it doth excel :
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the sons of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy houſe they ſhall be fed,
with plenty at their will :
Of all delights they ſhall be ſped,
and take thereof their fill.
9 For why ? the well of life so pure doth ever flow from thee :
And in thy light we are full ſure
the laſting fight to fee.
10 From ſuch as thee deſire to know,
let not thy grace depart :
Thy righteouſneſs declare and ſhow
to men of ſpright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord of the good grace :
Nor let the wicked me affaiſ,
to throw me out of place.
12 But they in their device ſhall fall
that wicked works maintain :
They ſhall be overthrown withal,
and never rise again.

PSALM xxvij. W. W.

G
Rudge not to fee the wicked men,
in wealth to flouriſh ſtill :
Nor yet envy ſuch as to ill
have bent, and ſet their will.
2 For as green graſs and flouriſhing herbs,
are cut and wither away :
So ſhall their great proſperity
foon paſs, fade, and decay.
3 Truſt thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind :
So ſhalt thou have the land as thine,
and there ſure food ſhall find.
4 In God ſet all thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldſt have,
Or elſe can wiſh in all the world,
thou needſt it not to crave.
5 Caſt both thy ſelf and thine affain,
on God with perfect truſt :
And thou ſhalt fee with patience,
th' effect both faire and iuft.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will clear as the light :
So that the Sun even at noon day,
ſhall not ſhine half ſo bright.
7 Be ſtill therefore and ſteadſtly on God ſee thou wait then :
Not shrinking for the proſperous fame
of lewd and wicked men.

8 Shake off diſpight, envy and hate,
at leaſt in any wife :
Their wicked steps avoid and flee
and fellow not their guile.
9 For every wicked man will God
deſtroy both more and leſs :
But ſuch as truſt in him are ſure
the land for to poſſeſſ :
10 Watch but a while and thou ſhall fee
no more the wicked train :
No ſo much as houſe or place
where once he did remain.

The ſecond Part.

11 But merciful and humble men
enjoy ſhall ſea and land :
In reſt and peace they ſhall rejoice,
for nought shall them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicioſe,
againſt the juſt conſpire :
They gnāin their teeth at him as men
which do his bane defire.
13 But while the lewd men thus do think,
the Lord laughs them to ſcōm :
For why ? he fees the temr approach,
when they ſhall figh and moan.
14 The wicked have their ſwords ourdrawn,
their bow eſe have they bent :
To overthrow and kill the poor,
as they the right way went.
15 But the ſame ſword ſhall pierce their heaſt which was to kill the juſt :
Likewiſe the bow ſhall break to ſhivers wherein they put their truſt.
16 Doubtles the juſt mans poor elte is better a great deal more,
Than all theſe lewd and wicked men
rich, pompe and heaped ſtore, 17 For be their power never ſo strong,
God will it overthrow :
Where contrary he doth preſerve
the humble men and low.
18 He fees by his great proviſeſe,
the good mens trade and way :
And will give them inheritance,
which never ſhall decay.

19 They ſhall not be diſcouraged,
when ſome are hard beſteſt :
When other ſhall be hunger-bit,
they ſhall be clad and fed.
20 For whoſoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord :
Shall quail, yea melt even as Lambs great,
or ſimile that flies abroad.

The third Part.

21 Behold the wicked borrows muſch,
and never pays again :
Whereas the juſt by liberal gift,
makes many glad and pain.
22 For they whom God doth bleſſe ſhall
the land for heritage :
And they whom he doth daſſe till wife
ſhall perifh in his rage.

23 The

1 The Lord the just mans ways doth guide and gives him good success :
To every thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good address.
2 Though that he fall, yet is he sure not utterly to quail ;
because the Lord puts out his hand
at need and doth not fail.
3 I have been young and now am old,
yet did I never see
The just man left, nor yet his seed to beg for misery.
4 But gives alway most liberally,
and lends whereas is need :
His children and posterity receive of God their meed.
5 Flee vice therefore and wickedness,
and vertue do embrace :
So shall God grant thee long to have on earth a dwelling place.
6 For God so loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace :
That he preserveth them alway,
but stroys the wicked race.
7 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land :
Having as Lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.
8 The just mans mouth shall ever speak of matters wise and high :
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equity.
9 For in his heart the Law of God
his Lord doth still abide :
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.
10 The wicked like a raving wolf,
the just man doth beset :
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth Part.

11 Though he should fall into his hands
yet God would succour send :
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.
12 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then :
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd these wicked men.
13 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree :
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Laurel-tree.
14 But suddenly he past away,
and lo he was quite gone :
Then I him sought, but could not find the place where dwelt such one.
15 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him encraspe :
For the just man shall have at length great joy with rest and peace.
16 As for transgreſſours, woe to them,
destroy'd they shall all be;

God will cut off their bedding race,
and rich posterity.

17 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above :
Who in their trouble sends them aid
of his meer grace and love.
18 God doth them help, save, and deliver from lewd men and unjust :
And still will save them whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

PSALM xxxviii. J. H.

PUT me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire :
Ne in thy heavy wrath, O Lord,
correct me I desire.
2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth pres' me sore :
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.
3 And all this is by reason of the wrath that I am in :
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sin.
4 For lo my wicked doings (Lord)
above my head are gone :
A greater load than I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.
5 My wounds stink and are festered so,
as loathsome is to see :
Which all through mine own foolishness
betideth unto me.
6 And I in careful wise am brought in trouble and distreſſ :
That I go waiting all the day
in doleful heaviness.
7 My loins are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part :
8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roar for grief of heart. (groans) 9 Thou know'ſt (Lord) my desire, my are open in thy sight, (fail)
10 My heart doth pain, my strength doth mine eyes have lost their light.
11 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo :
And eke my kinſmen far away
are me departed fro.
12 They that did seek my life, laid snares
and they that fought the way To de me hurt, spake lies and thought on mischief all the day.

The second Part.

13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all :
14 And as one dumb, that opens his mouth to speak withal.
15 For all my confidence O Lord
is wholly fet on thee :
O Lord, thou Lord that'ſt my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.
16 This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me :
For

- For when my soul did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.
- 17 And truly I poor wretch am set, in place, a woful wight : And eke my grievous heaviness is ever in my sight.
- 18 For while that I my wickedness in humble wise confess : And while I for my sinful deeds, my sorrows do express :
- 19 My foes do still remain alive, and mighty are also, And they that hate me wrongfully, in number hugely grow.
- 20 They stand against me, that my good with evil do repay : Because that good and honest things I do enie alway.
- 21 Forlacke me not, O Lord my God, be thou not far away :
- 22 Haste me to help, my Lord, my God, my safety and my stay.

PSALM xxxix. J. H.

- I Said I will look to my wayes, for fear I should go wrong : I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.
- 2 As with a bit I will keep fast my mouth with force and might Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in sight.
- 3 I held my tongue and speake no word, but kept me cloise and still : Yea from good talk I did refrain, but sore against my will.
- 4 My heart waxt hot within my brest, with musing thought and doubt : Which did increase and stir the fire, at last these words burst out.
- 5 Lord number out my life and dayes which yet I have not past, So that I may be certifi d, how long my life shall last.
- 6 Lord thou haft pointed out my life, in length much like a span : Mine age is nothing unto thee, so vain is every man.
- 7 Man walketh like a shad, and doth in vain himself annoy In getting goods, and cannot tell, who shall the same enjoy.
- 8 Now Lord since things this wise do what help do I desire ? (frame, Of truth my help doth hang on thee, I nothing else require.

The second Part.

- 9 From all the sins that I have done, Lord quit me out of hand : And make me not a scorn to fools that nothing understand.
- 10 I was as dumb, and to complain no trouble might me move ;

Because I knew it was thy work, my patience for to prove.

- 11 Lord take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand : (plague, I faint and pine away for fear of thy most heavy hand.
- 12 When thou for sin dost man rebuke, he waxeth woe and wan : As doth a cloth that moths have fret, so vain a thing is man.
- 13 Lord hear my fuit, and give good heed, regard my tears that fall : I sojourn like a stranger here, as did my fathers all.
- 14 O spare a little, give me space my strengthli for to restore : Before I go away from hence, and shall be seen no more.

PSALM xl. J. H.

- I Waited long and sought the Lord, and patiently did bear : At length to me he did accord, my voice and cry to hear.
- 2 He plu li't me from the lake so deep, out of the mire and clay : And on a rock he set my feet, and he did guide my way.
- 3 To me he taught a Psalm of praise, which I must shew abroad : And sing new songes of thanks alwayes unto the Lord our God.
- 4 When all the folk these things shall see as people much afraid : Then they unto the Lord will flee, and trust upon his aid.
- 5 O blest is he whose hope and heart doth in the Lord remain : That with the prou d doth take no part, nor such as lye and fain.
- 6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deeds in greates far do pass : Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.
- 7 When I intend and to devise thy works abroad to show : To such a reckoning they do rise, thereof no end I know.
- 8 Burnt-offerings thou delight'st not in, I know thy whole desire, With sacrifice to purge his sin, thou dost no man require.
- 9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice thou wouldst not have at all : But thou (O Lord) haft open made mine ears to hear withal.
- 10 But then said I, Behold and loek, I come a mean to be : For in the volume of thy book thus it is laid of me,
- 11 That I (O Lord) should do thy mind, which thing doth like me well:

For

For in my heart thy law I find fist placed there to dwell.
12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
 in great refts I tell :
Behold my tongue no time doth cease,
 O Lord thou knowst full well.

The second Part.

- 13 I have not hid wthin my brest,
 thy goodness as by health,
But I declare and have expreit
 thy truth and saving health.
14 I kept not clost thy loving mind,
 that no man should it know :
The trust that in thy truth I find,
 to all the Church I show.
15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me,
 withdraw thou not away,
But let thy love and verity
 preferre me still for ay.
16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about:
My sins increase, and so come on,
 I cannot spy them out.
17 For why ? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head :
My heart doth faint for very dread,
 that I am almost dead.
18 With speed send help and set me free,
 O Lord I thee require :
Make haste with aid to succour me,
 O Lord at my desire.
19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame,
 that seek my soul to spill :
Drive back my foes, and them defame,
 that wish and would me ill.
20 For their ill feats do them descry,
 that would deface my name :
wayes ar me they rail and cry,
 e on him, e for shame.
Let them in thee have joy and wealth
 that seek to thee alwayes :
That thole that love thy saving health
 may say, To God be praise.
22 But as for me, I am but poor,
 oppreft and brought full low :
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.
23 For why ? thou art my hope and trust,
 my refuge, help, and stay.
Wherefore my God as thou art just,
 with me no time delay.

PSALM xli. T. S.

THE man is blest that careful is the needy to consider:
For in the season perillous
 the Lord will him deliver.
2 The Lord will make him safe and sound and happy in the land :
And he will not deliver him
 into his enemies hand.
3 And on his bed when he lies sick,
 the Lord will him restore :
And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
 his sickness and his sore.

- 4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
 have mercy Lord on me,
And heal my foul, which is full woe
 that I offended thee.
5 Mine enemies wch'd me ill in heart
 and thus of me did say,
When shall he die, that all his name
 may vanish quite away ?
6 And when they come to visit me,
 they ask if I do well :
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
 and to their mates it tell.
7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
 as though they would me charm,
And cast their fetches how to trap
 me with some deadly harm.
8 Some grievous sin hath brought him to this sickness, say they plain :
He is so low, that without doubt rise can he not again.
9 The man also that I did trust,
 with me did use deceit :
Who at my table ate my bread,
 the same for me laid wait.
10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore,
 and let me be preserv'd :
That I may render unto them
 the things they have deliv'r'd.
11 By this I know assuredly to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cause to triumph over me.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
 and maintained alway :
And in thy presence place assign'd
 where I shall dwell for ay.
13 The Lord the God of Israel
 be praised evermore.
Even so be it (Lord) will I say,
 even so be it therefore.

PSALM xliij. J. H.

Like as the hart doth breath and bray
 the well-springs to obtain,
So doth my soul desire alway,
 with thee Lord to remain.
2 My soul doth thirst & would draw near the living God of might :
O when shall I come and appear in presence of his sight ?
3 The tears all times are my repast,
 which from mine eyes do slide,
When wicked men cry out so fast,
 Where now is God thy guide ?
4 Alas what grief is it to think what freedom once I had ?
Therefore my soul as at pits brink,
 most heavy is and fad.
When I did march in good array,
 furnished with my train,
Unto the temple was our way,
 with songs and hearts most fain.

5 My soul why art thou sad always,
and fretst thus in my brest?
Trust still in God, for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succour at need,
against all pain and grief:
He is my God which with all speed
will haste to send relief.
6 And thus my soul within me, Lord, doth faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second Part.

7 One grieft another in doth call as clouds burst out their voice:
The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodness,
and help at all assays:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.
9 I am periwaded thus to say to him with pure pretence:
O Lord thou art my guide and stay
my rock and sure defence,
Why do I then in penitiveness,
hanging the head thus walk?
While that mine enemies me opprest,
and vex me with their talk.

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts with pangs to be abhor'd:
When they cry out with stubborn hearts
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soon why doft thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain opprest:
With thoughts why doft thy self affail,
so sore within my brest?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God always,
and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with laud and praise for health restor'd to thee.

PSALM xliij. T. S.

Judge and revenge my cause O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitful men,
O Lord deliver me.

2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why putt thou me thee fro?
And why walk I so heavily opprest with my foe?

3 Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.

4 Then shall I to the Altar go,
of God my joy and cheer:
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God, my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and fretst thus in my brest?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it always best.

6 By him I have deliverance
against all pain and grief;
He is my God which doth always at need send me relief.

PSALM xli. T. S.

OUR ears have heard our fathers tell,
and reverently record,
The wondrous works that thou hast done
in older time O Lord.

2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out,
and strok'dst them with strong hand,
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'it to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor the land of thy behest: (strength)
But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace,
because thou lov'dst them best.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that holp
Jacob in sundry wise:
5 Led with thy power, we threw down
as did against us rise. (such)

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me sound:

7 Thou keptit us from our enemies rage, thou didst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:

9 Yct now thou go'st not with our host but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes
and so were over-trod:
Our enemies rob'd and spoll'd our goods
when we were sperf't abroad.

11 Thou haft us given to our foes,
a sheep for to be slain:
Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remain.

12 Thy people thou haft sold like slaves
and as a thing of nought:
For profit none thou haft thereby,
no gain at all was sought.

13 And to our neighbours thou haft made
of us a laughing stock:
And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second Part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk:
They mock, they scorn, they nod their where e're they go or walk. (heads)

15 I am alham'd continually to hear these wicked men:
Yea so I blush that all my face with red is covered then.

16 For why? we hear such slanderous words,
such false reports and lies:
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatenings and their cries.

17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake:

18 We turn not back our hearts from thee,
nor yet thy paths forsake.

19 Yet

- 19 Yet thou hast trod us down to where dens of dragons be : (dost,
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity. (got,
20 If we had our God's Name for-and help of Idols sought, (out ?
21 Would not G. them have tri'd this for he doth know our thought.
22 Nay, nay, for thy Names sake, O always are we slain thus : (Lord,
As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.
23 Up Lord, why sleepest thou ? - and leave us not for all : (wake, 24 Why hid'st thou thy countenance, and dost forget our thrall ?
25 For down to dust our soul is and we now at last cast : (brought,
Our belly like as it were glu'd,
unto the ground cleaves fast.
26 Rise up therefore for our de-
and help us Lord, at need : (fence,
We thee beseech for thy goodmell,
to rescue us with speed.

At thy right hand the Queen doth
in gold and garments gay. (hand

11 O daughter, take good heed, incline and give good ear :
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.
12 Then shall the King desire thy beauty fair and trim :
For why ? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.
13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see :
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
14 The daughter of the King
is glorious to behold :
Within her closet she doth sit
all deckt with beaten gold.

With Virgins fair on her to waite,
she cometh to the King.
16 Thus are they brought with joy

PSALM xiv. J. H.

MY heart doth take in hand,
Some godly song to sing :
The praise that I shall shew therein,
Pertaineth to the King.

1 My tongue shall be as quick,
His honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe,
That useth fast to write.

2 O fairest of all men,
Thy speech is pleasant pure :
For God hath blessed thee with gifts
For ever to endure.

3 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect :
With honour, glory, and renown,
Thy person pure is deckt.

4 Go forth with godly speed,
With meekness, truth, and right :
And thy right hand shal thee instruct
In works of dreadful might.

5 Thine arrows sharp and keen,
Their hearts so sore shall sting :
That folk shall fall, and kneel to Yea all thy foes, O King. (thee,

6 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
For ever shall remain :
Because the scepter of thy Realm
Doth righteousness maintain.

7 Because thou lovest the right,
And dost the ill detest :
God even thy God hath 'nointed
With joy above the rest. (the)

8 With myrrhe and savours sweet,
Thy cloaths are all bespread :
When thou dost from thy palace
Therein to make thee glad. (pa)

9 Kings daughters do attend
In fine and rich array :

At thy right hand the Queen doth
in gold and garments gay. (Stand)

PSALM xvi. 7. H.

THE Lord is our defence & aid, & strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismaid
 he is our help at hand. [not fear, 2 Though th'earth remove, we will though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here & there,
 within the Sea so deep.

3 No, though y^e waves do rage so sore,
that all the banks it spills :
And though it overflow the moore,
and beat down mighty hills.
4 For one fair flood doth send abroad
his pleasant streams apace :
To fresh the City of our God,
and wash his holy place.

¶ In midst of her the Lord doth she can no whit decay : (dwell,
All things against her that rebel,
the Lord will surely slay.

the heathen folk the kingdoms
the people make a noise : (feat
The earth doth melt & not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.

7 The Lord of hosts doth take our to us he hath an eye: (part,

Our hope of health with all our heart
on Jacob's God doth lye.

8 Come here and see with mind and the working of our God: (thought,
What wonders he himself hath in all the world abroad (wrought.

9 By him all wars are hast: and gane which countries did confire:
Their bows he broke, & spears each their chariots burnt with fire (one, 10 Leave off therefore, saith he, and I am a God most stout: (know Amongst the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

PSALM XLVII. J. H.

Ye people all, with one accord,
clap hands and eke rejoice:
Be glad, and sing unto the Lord,
with sweet and pleasant voice.

2 For high the Lord and dreadful is,
with wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is truly,
in all the earth extold.

3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall.

4 For us the heritage he chose,
which we possest alone:
The flourishing worship of Jacob,
his well beloved one.

5 Our God ascended up on high,
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the skie,
with trumpets royal voice.

6 Sing praises to our God, sing sing praises to our King: (praise, 7 For God is King of all the earth,
all skilful praises sing.

8 God on the heathen reigns, & sits upon his holy throne:
The princes of the people have them joyned every one 9 To Abrahams people; for our God which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

PSALM XLVIII. J. H.

Great is the Lord, & with great to be advanced still: (praise Within the City of our God, upon his holy hill.

10 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The City of the mighty King
on her north side doth stand.
11 Within the palaces thereof,
God is a refuge known;

For lo, the Kings are gathered, and together they are gone.

4 But when they did behold it so, they wondered, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly were driven back with fear.

5 Great terror there on them did for very woe they cry: (fall,
As doth a woman when she shall go travel by and by.

6 As thou with Eastern winds the upon the sea doft break: (ships
So they were strid, and even as we heard our fathers speak.

7 So in the city of the Lord,
we saw as it was told:
Yea, in the city which our God
for ever will uphold.

8 O Lord, we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

9 O Lord, according to thy Name,
for ever is thy praise:
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.

10 Let, for thy judgements, Sion fulfilled be with joys: (mount And eke of Juda grant, O Lord,
the daughters to rejoice.

11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea, round about her go:
And tell the towers of her cupon
are builded on a row.

12 And mark ye well her bulwarks behind her tower there: (all,
That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God for evermore is he:
Yea, and unto the death also our guider shall he be.

PSALM XLIX. J. H.

All people hearken and give ear
to that that I shall tell:
1 Both high & low, both rich & poor,
that in the world do dwell.
3 For why? my mouth shall make dis-of many things right wise: (course
In understanding shall my heart
his study exercise.

4 I will incline mine ear to know
the parable so dark:
And open all my doubtful speech,
in meter on my harp.

5 Why should I fear affliction,
or any careful toil:
Or else my foes which at my heels
are prest my life to spoil?

6 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most:

And

And they w^t of their treasures great them selves do brag and boast, 1 There is not one of them that can his brothers death redeem ;
Or that can give a price to God sufficient for him.

8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain :
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remain.
9 They see wise men as well as fools
subject unto deaths bands :
And being dead, strangers possess
their goods, their rents, their lands.
10 Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure,
To make their name right great on
for ever to endure. (earth, 11 Yet shall no man always enjoy high honour, wealth, and rest :
12 But shall at length taste of deaths
as well as the bruit beast. (up,

The second Part.

13 And tho' they try their foolish to be most lewd & vain : (thoughts, Their children yet approve their
and in like sin remain. (talk,

14 As sheep into y^t fold are brought,
So shall they into grave :
Death shall them eat, and in y^t day,
the just shall lordship have.
Their image and their royal port shall fade, and quite decay :
A hen as from house to pit they pass
with wo and weill away.

15 But God will surely preserve me from death and endles^s pain :
Because he will of his good grace,
my soul receive again.

16 If any man wax wondrous rich, fear not, I say, therefore :
Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.
17 For when he dies, of all these nothing shall he receive : (things
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.

18 Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under Sun :
And others likewise flatter him,
saying, All is well done.

19 And presuppose he live as long as did his fathers old : (place, Yet must he needs at length give and be brought to deaths fold.

20 Thus man to honour God hath yet doth he not consider : (brought But like bruit beasts so doth he live,
which turn-to dust and powder.

P S A L M L. W W.

T He mighty God,
th' Eternal hath thus spoke,

And all the world
he will call and provoke :
Even from the East,
and so forth to the West.
2 From toward Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appear in beauty most excellent :
Our God will come before that long time be spent.
3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face :
A great tempeit
shall round about him trace.
4 Then shall he call the earth and heavens bright
To judge his folk
with equity and right.
5 Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble,
My pa^tt they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.
6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness,
For God is judge
of all things more and less.
7 Hear, my people,
for I will now reveal ;
Lift, Israel,
I will thee nought conceal :
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee.
8 For giving not all manner offerings to me.
9 I have no need to take of thee at all,
Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall :
10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods, On thousand hills
cattle are mine own goods.
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains :
All beasts are mine,
I haun^t the fields & fountains.
12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell :
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell, 13 Eat I the flesh
of great bulls or bullocks,
Or drink the blood
of goats, or of the flocks ?
14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgivings :
And pay thy vows
unto God ever-living.
15 Call upon me,
when troubled thou shalt be :
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.
16 To the wicked
thus saith th' Eternal God,

Why doſt thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad ?
 17 Seeing thou haſt
them with thy mouth abuſed,
And haſt to be
by discipline reformed.
 My words, I ſay,
thou doſt reject and hate.
 18 If that thou ſee
a thief, as with thy mate, Thou runſt wth him,
and ſo your prey do ſeek :
 And art all one
with bandits and ruffians eke.
 19 Thou giuſt thy ſelf
to backbiting and to ſlander :
 And how thy tongue
deceives, it is a wonder.
 20 Thou fitteſt muſing,
thy brother for to blame :
 And how to put
thy mothers ſon to shame.
 21 These things thou diſdit,
and whilſt I held my tongue, Thou diſdit me judge,
because I ſtaid ſo long,
 Like to thy ſelf :
 yet though I keep long ſilence, Once ſhalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.
 22 Conſider this,
ye that forget the Lord,
 And fear not when he threatneth with his word :
 Left without help
 I ſpoil you as a prey.
 23 But he that thanks
offereth, praileth me aye,
 Saith the Lord God,

THe God of gods, the Lord,
 hath call'd the earth by name:
 From whence the Sun doth riſe, un-

 2 From Sion his fair place,
 his glory bright and clear :
 The perfect beauty of his grace,
 from thence it did appear.
 3 Our God shall come in hafte,
 to ſpeak he ſhall not doubt :
 Before him ſhall the fire waite,
 and tempeſt round about.
 4 The heavens from on high,
 the earth below likewife :
 We will call forth, to judge and try his folk he doth deſile.

6 And when these things are tride,
 the heavens ſhall record,
 That God is juſt, and all muſt bide
 the judgment of the Lord.
 7 My people, O give heed,
 Israel, to thee I cry :
 I am thy God, thy help at need,
 thou caſt it not deny.
 8 I do not ſay to thee,
 thy ſacrifice is ſlack :
 Thou offereft daily unto me
 much more then I do looke.
 9 Think'ſt thou that I do need thy cattle young or old ?
 Or muſt ſo much deſire to feed
 on Goats out of thy fold ?

 in woods that eat their fills :
 And thou ſands more of neat & kine,
 that run wild on the hills.

The ſecond Part.

 And beaſts that in the fields do lie,

 Or ſuch a ſweetneſs do I find,
 the blood of Goats to drink ?

 And ſee thou pay thy vows always unto the God moſt high.

 when ought would work thee
 And I will ſure deliver thee,
 that thou maift praise my Name.

 my word once ſpeak or name ?
 Why doth thy talk my law allow ?
 thy deeds deny the ſame.
 18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art ſo ſlack :
 My word the w thou doſt pretend is caſt behind thy back.

The third Part.

 With him thou runſt, and doſt agree

And from the furnace quit him free from burning brick of clay.
8 When thou in grief didst cry and I helpt thee by and by : (call,
And I did answer thee withal
in thunder secretly.
9 Yes, at the waters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove :
Whereas the goodness of the Lord
with muttering thou didst move.
10 Hear, O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee :
Regard, and mark my words full
if thou wilt cleave to me. (well,
The second Part.
11 Thou shalt no God in thee re-
of any land abroad : [serve, Nor in no wise bow to or serve a strange or foreign god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free :
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.
13 And yet my people would not my voice when that I spake : (hear Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.
14 Then did I leave them to their in hardness of their heart, (will,
To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.
15 O that my people would have the words that I did lay : (heard And eke that Israel would regard to walk within my way :
16 How soon would I confound their & bring them down full low : [foes
And turn my hand upon all those that would them overthrow.
17 And they y at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him till :
But of his folk the time and age should flourish ever still.
18 I would have fed them with the
and finest of the wheat : [crop,

And made the rock with honey drop
that they their fills should eat.

A Mid the press with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth & right
with judges of the land.
2 How long (saith he) will you pro-false judgment to award, [scead
And have respect for love of meed
the wicked to regard?
3 Whereas of due you should defend the fatherless and weak:
And when the poor man deth comin judgment justly speak. [tend,
4 If ye be wise, defend the cause of poor men in their right:
And rid the needy from the claws of tyrants force and might.
5 But nothing will they know or in vain to them I talk: [learns,
They will not see, or ought discern,
but still in darkness walk.
6 For lo, even now the time is come that all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws both all and some
for gain are sold and bought.
I had decreed it in my sight,
as gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might
for love I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants, I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.
8 Up, Lord, & let thy strength be & judg y world with might known For why? all nations are thine own,
to take them as thy right.

P S A L M lxxxiii. J. H.

DO not (O God) refrain thy in silence do not stay: [tongue, Withhold not, Lord, thy self so
and make no more delay. [long, 2 For why, behold thy foes, & see how they do rage and cry:
And those that bear an hate to thee
held up their heads on high.
3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait,
their counsel doth conspire.
4 Come on, say they, let us expel,
and pluck these folk away:
So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay. [heart, 5 They al conspire within their how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ishmaelites also:

The Hagarens and Moabites, with divers others mo.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise doth Amaleck conspire.

The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Ashur eke is well apaid,
with them in league to be:

And doth become a fence and aid to Lots posterity.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them Lord each one:

As to Sifer and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison: [stroy,

10 Whonathow in Endordidst de-& waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did
and that in open fight. [lie,
The second Part.

11 Make them now & their lords ap-like Zeb and Oreb than: [pear
As Zeba and Zalmunna were,
the Kings of Midian.

12 Which said, Let us throughout y in all the coasts abroad, [land Possess and take into our hand
the fair houses of God.

13 Turn them, O God, with storms
as wheels y have no stay: [as fast Or like the chaff which men do cast with winds to flie away.

14 Like as the fire with rage & flame
the mighty forests spills:

And as y flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills.

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:

And of thy stormy wind and shocr,
Lord make them all afraid.

16 Lord bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learn to seek thy Name.

17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:

And in rebuke and obloquie,
to perish eke withal.

18 That they may know & feel full that thou art called Lord: [well,
And that alone thou dost excel,
and reign throughout the world.

P S A L M lxxxiv. J. H.

HOW pleasant is thy dwelling
O Lord of hosts to me: [place,
The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant Lord they be!

2 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:

My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The sparrows find a room to rest,
and save themselves from wrong:
And eke the swallow hath a nest wherein to keeper young.

4 These

- 4 These birds full nigh thine Altar may have place to sit and sing :
O Lord of hosts thou art I say,
my God and eke my King.
- 5 O they be blessed that may dwell within thy house always :
For they all times by facts do tell
and ever give thee praise.
- 6 Yea happy sure likewise are they whole fav and strength thou art :
Which to thy house do mind the way,
and seek it in their heart.
- As they go through the vale of tears,
they dig up fountains still :
That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill. (full fast)
- 7 From strength to strength they walk
no faintness there shall be :
And so the God of Gods at last in Sion they do see.
- 8 O Lord of hosts to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray :
And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God I say.
- 9 O Lord our shield of thy good grace regard, and so draw near ?
Regard, I say, behold the face of thine anointed dear.
- 10 For why? within thy Courts one day
is better to abide,
Than other where to keep or stay,
a thousand years beside.
Much rather woul'd I keep a door
within the house of God.
Than in the tents of wickedness
to settle mine abode.
- 11 For God the Lord, light and defence, will grace and worship give :
And no good thing shall he with-hold from them that purely live.
- 12 O Lord of host that man is blest,
and happy sure is he,
That is perswaded in his brest,
to trust all times in thee.
- PSALM Lxxxv. J. H.
- T Hou hast been merciful indeed
O Lord unto thy land,
For thou restorest Jacobs feed,
from thralldom out of hand.
- 2 The wicked ways that they were in thou didst them clean remit:
And thou didst hide thy peoples sin,
full close thou coveredst it.
- 3 Thine anger eke thou didst affwage,
that all thy wrath was gone,
And so die st turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.
- 4 O God our health do now convert thy people unto thee :
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.
- 5 Why? shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed to us?
And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus :
- 6 Will thou not rather turn therefore,
and quicken us, that we,
And all thy folk for ever more
be glad and joy in thee?
- 7 O Lord on us do thou declare thy goodness to our wealth :
Shew forth to us, and do not spare thine aid and saving health.
- 8 I will heark what God says, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his saints, that never they/return to foolishnes.
- 9 For why? his help is still at hand
to such as do him fear :
Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.
- 10 For trath and mercy there shall meet
in one to take their place :
And peace shall Justice with kiss greet,
and there they shall embrace.
- 11 A truth from earth shall spring apace
and flourish pleasantly :
So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.
- 12 Yea God himself doth take in hand to give us each good thing :
And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.
- 13 Before his face shall Justice go,
much like a guide or stay :
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

PSALM Lxxxvi. J. H.

- L Ord bow thine ear to my requests and hear me by and by :
With grievous pain and grief oppress,
full poor and weak am I.
- 2 Preserve my soul, because my ways and doings holy be :
And save thy servant, O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.
- 3 Thy mercy (Lord) on me express,
defend me eke without :
For through the day I do not cease
on thee to cry and call :
- 4 Comfort (O Lord) thy servants soul
that now with pain is pin'd,
For unto thee (Lord) I extol and lift my soul and mind :
- 5 For thou art god and bountiful,
thy gifts of grace are free :
And eke thy mercy plentiful
to all that call on thee.
- 6 O Lord likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear :
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.
- 7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain.
For why? I know and well do prove,
thou answerest me again.
- 8 Among the gods (O Lord) is none
with thee to be compar'd.

And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.

The second Part.

- ¶ The Gen'les and the People all,
which thou didst make and frame
Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy name.
¶ For why thou art so much of might,
all power isthine own:
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.

- ¶ O teach me, Lord, the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O joy my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.
¶ To thee, my God, will I give praise,
with all my heart, O Lord:
And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the World.

- ¶ For why? thy mercy shew'd to me,
is great, and doth excel:
Thou set'st thy soul at liberty,
out from the lower hell.
¶ O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might:
They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.

- ¶ Thou, Lord, art merciful and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.
¶ Turn to me, and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaide son am I.
¶ On me some sign of favour show:
that all my foes may see,
And be alarm'd, because (Lord) thou dost help and comfort me.

PSALM Lxxvii. J. H.

That City shall full well endure,
her ground-work still doth stay
Upon the holy hill full sure,
it can no time decay.
¶ God loves the gate of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more than all the rest of Jacob's tents beside.
¶ full glorious things reported be in Sion and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou City of our God.
¶ On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in mind the same:
And Babylon shall eke apply,
and learn to know thy Name.
¶ Lo, Palestine and Tire also,
with Ethiopia likewise:
¶ People old, full long ago
were born and there did rise.
¶ Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God 15
that founded, cast the same.

- ¶ In their records to them it shall through God's device appear,
Of ion, that the chief of all,
had his beginning there.
¶ The trumpeters with such as sing,
there in great plenty be:
My fountains and my pleasant springs are compast all in thee.

PSALM Lxxxviii. J. H.

Lord God of health, the hope and way
thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

- ¶ O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high:
Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend,
and hearken to my cry.

- ¶ For why? with wo my heart is fill'd
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.

- ¶ I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

- ¶ As one among the dead, and free from things that here remains:
It were more ease for me to be with them the which are slain.

- ¶ As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

- ¶ Yea, like to one that up full sure within the lower pit,
In places dark, and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

- ¶ Thine anger and thy wrath likewile full sore on him doth lie:
And all thy storms against me rise,
My soul to vex and try.

- ¶ Thou puts my friends far off from me
and mak'st them hate me sore:
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

- ¶ My sight doth fail through grief
I call to thee, O God:
Throughout the day my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The second Part.

- ¶ Do'st thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the fame?

- ¶ Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be preached in the grave?
Or shall with them which are destroy'd thy truth her honour have?

- ¶ Shall they that lie in dark full low,
of all thy wonders wot?
Or there shall they thy justice know,
where all things are forgot?

- ¶ But I, O Lord, to the always do cry and call aspe;

My prayer eke ere it be day,
Shall come before thy face.

15 Why doſt thou, Lord, abhor my ſoul,
In grief that ſeeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why doſt thou hide
thy face away from me?

16 I am afflieted, dying ſtill
From youth this many a year:
The terrors which do vex me ill,
With troubled mind I bear.

17 The furies of thy wrathful rage
Fall fore upon me fall:
Thy terrors eke do not affwage,
But me oppreſs withal.

18 All day they compaſſ me about,
As water at the tide:
And all at once with ſtreams full stout
Beſet me on each ſide.

19 Thou ſetteſt far from me my friends,
And lovers every one:
Yea, and mine old acquaintance all
Out of my ſight are gone.

PSALM Lxxxix. J. H.

TO ſing the mercies of the Lord,
My tongue shall never ſpare:
And with my thought from age to age,
Thy truth will I declare.

2 For I have ſaid that mercy ſhall
For evermore remain:
In that thou doſt the heavens stay,
Thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To mine elect, ſaith God, I made A covenant and bekeſt:
My fervant David to perſuade,
I ſwore and did protest.

4 Thy ſeed for ever I will ſtay,
And ſtabliſh it full fast:
And ſtill uphold thy Threne alway,
From age to age to laſt.

5 The heavens ſhew with joy and mirth
Thy wondrouſ works, O Lord:
Thy Saints within thy Church on earth,
The faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equal then
In all the clouds abroad?
Amongſt the ſons of all the Gods,
What one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of his Saints
Is greatly to be dread:
And over all that dwell about
In terror to be had.

8 Lord God of hosts, in all the World,
What one is like to thee?

On every ſide, most mighty Lord,
Thy truth is ſeen to be.

9 The raging ſea by thine advice, Thou ruleſt at thy will:
And when the waves thereof arife,
Thou mak'ſt them calm and ſtill.

10 And Egypt (Lord) thou haſt ſubdu'd,
And thou haſt it deſtroy'd:
Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arm
Haſt ſcattered all abroad.

The ſecond Part

11 The heavens are thine, and ſtill haue Likewife the earth and land: (been,
The World, and all that is therein,
Thou foundedſt with thy hand,) Weſt,

12 Both North and South, with Eaſt and Thyfelf didſt make and frame:
Both Taber mount, and eke Hermon,
Rejoice and praife thy Name.

13 Thine arm is strong and full of power
All might therein doth lie:
The strength of thy right hand each hour
Thou liftest up on high.

14 In righteousness and equity
Thou haſt thy Seat and Place:
Mercy and truth are ſtill with thee,
And go before thy face.

15 That folk is bleſt that knows aright
Thy preſent power, O God:
For in the favour of thy ſight
They walk full ſafe abroad.

16 For in thy Name throughout the day
They joy and much rejoice:
And through thy righteousness haue they
A pleasant fame and noife.

17 For why? their glory, strength & aid
In thee alone doth lie:
Thy goodness eke that faſh us ſtaid,
Shall lift our horn on high.

18 Our strength that doth defend us well
The Lord to us doth bring:
The Holy One of Israel,
He is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy Saints
In viſions thou diſt ſhow:
And thus then diſt thou ſay to them,
Thy mind to make them know:

20 A man of might I haue erect
Your King and guide to be:
And ſet him up whom I elect
Among the folk to me.

The third Part.

21 My fervant David I appoint,
Whom I haue ſearched out:
And with my holy oil anoint
Him King of all the rout.

22 For why? my hand is ready ſtill
With him for to reſtān:
And with mine arm also I will
Him strengthen and ſustain.

23 The enemies ſhall not him opprefſe,
They shall not him devor:
Ne yet the lions of wickedneſſ
On him haue any power.

24 His foes likewife I will deſtroy
Before his face in ſight:
And thoſe that hate him I will plague,
And ſtrike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withal,
Shall ſtill upon him lie:
And in my Name his horn eke ſhall
Be lifted up on high.

26 His Kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land:
 And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.
 27 He shall depend with all his heart
 on me, and thus shall say:
 My Father and my God thou art,
 my rock of health and stay.
 28 As my first-born I will him take,
 of all on earth that springs:
 His might and honour I will make above all earthly Kings.
 29 My mercy shall be with him still as I my self have told:
 My faithful covenant to fulfil
 my mercy I will hold.
 30 And eke his Seed I will sustain for ever strong and sure:
 So that his seed shall still remain
 while Heaven doth endure.

The fourth Part.

31 If that his sons forsake my Law,
 and so begin to swerve:
 And of my judgements have no awe,
 nor will not them obserue.
 32 Or if they will not use aright
 my statutes to them made:
 And let all my commandments light,
 and will not keep my trade.
 33 Then with the Rod will I begin,
 their doings to amend:
 And so will scourge them for their sin,
 if that they do offend.
 34 My mercy yet and my goodness,
 I will not take him fro:
 Nor handle him with craftiness,
 and so my truth forgo.
 35 But sure my covenant I will hold with all that I have spoke:
 No word the which my lips have told;
 shall alter or be broke.
 36 Once I sware I by my holiness
 and that perform will I:
 With David I shall keep promise,
 to him I will not lie.
 37 His seed for evermore shall reign,
 and eke his throne of might:
 As doth the Sun, it shall remain
 for ever in my sight.
 38 And as the Moon within the skie
 for ever standeth fast:
 A faithful witness from on hie,
 so shall his Kingdom last.
 39 But now, O Lord, thou dost reject,
 and now thou changest heat:
 Yea thou art wrath with thine elect,
 thine own anointed dear.
 40 The covenant with thy servant made,
 Lord thou hast quite undone:
 And down upon the ground also hast cast his royal crown.

The fifth Part.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges up with his walls thou dost confound; (might

Thou beatest eke his bulwarks down,
 and break'st them to the ground:
 42 That he is sore destroy'd and torn of comers by throughout:
 And so is made a mock and scorn
 to all that dwell about.
 43 Thou their right hand hast lifed up,
 that him so sore annoy:
 And all his foes that him devour,
 lo th' ou hast made to joy.
 44 His swords edge thou dost take away that shouldest his foes withstand:
 To him in War no Victory
 thou giv'st, nor upper Hand.
 45 His glory thou dost also waste,
 his throne, his joy, his mirth,
 By thee are overthrown, and cast
 full low upon the earth.
 46 Thou hast cut off and made full short
 his youth and lusty days:
 And rais'd of him an ill report,
 with shame and great dilpraise.
 47 How long away from me, O Lord,
 for ever wilt thou turn?
 And shall thine anger still away,
 as fire consume and burn?
 48 O call to mind, remember then,
 my time consumeth fast:
 Why hast thou made the forms of men
 as things in vain to waste?
 49 What man is he that liveth here,
 and death shall never see?
 Or from the hand of Hell his soul
 shall he deliver free?
 50 Where is (O Lord) thine old goodness
 so oft declar'd before,
 Which by thy truth and uprightness
 to David thou hast swore?
 51 The great rebukes to mind I call,
 that on thy servant lie:
 The railings of the People all
 born in my breast have I:
 52 Wherewith (O Lord) thine enemies
 blasphemed have thy Name:
 The steps of thine anointed One
 they ceale not to defame.
 53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
 both now and eke for ay,
 Through Skie, & earth, & all the coast,
 Amen, Amen, I say.

PSALM xc. J. H.

THou Lord hast been our sure defance
 and place of ease and rest:
 In all time past, yea so long since,
 as cannot be express.
 2 Ere there was made mountain or hill
 the earth and world abroad:
 From age to age, and always still,
 for ever thou art God.
 3 Thou grindest man through grief &
 to dust, or clay, and then. (pain)
 And then thou layst agais, Return again ye sons of men.

Psalm Xci, Xcli.

53

4 The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.
5 So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade
All as asleep, and like the grafts whose beauty soon doth fade.
6 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but fadeth by and by:
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead and dry.
7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decay'd:
And of thy fervent wrath and fume
we are full fore afraid.
8 The wicked works that we have thou settest before thine eye: (wrought
Our prwy faults and eke our thoughts,
thy countenance doth spie.
9 For through thy wrath, our days do therefore doth nought remain: (waste
Our years consume as words or blasts
and are not call'd again.
10 Our time is threecore years and ten that we do live on mold:
If one see fourscore, surely then we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

11 Yet of this time the strength and the which we count upon, (chief Is nothing else but painful grief,
and we as of its are gone. (is there 12 Who once doth know what strength
what might thine anger hath:
Or in his heart who doth thee fear
accidin' to thy wrath?
13 Instruct us, Lord, to know and try,
how long our days remain:
That then we may our hearts apply
true wisdom to attain.
14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy Servants now,
and help them at their need.
15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon,
and then our Joy shall be:
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoice we will.
16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the years wherein full sore affliction we have had.
17 O let thy works and power appear and on thy servants light.
And shew unto thy children dear,
thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord let thy grace and glory stand on us thy Servants thus Confirm the Works we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to us.

PSALM xci. J. H.

HE that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell:

In shadow of the mightiest grace,
at rest thail keep him well.
2 Thou art my hope and my strong
I to the Lord will say: (hold My God is he, in him will I my whole assurance stay.
3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care,
whereof thou art afraid.
4 And with his wings shall cover thee,
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.
5 So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright,
Or all the shirts that fly by day,
or terror o' the night.
6 Nor of he plague that privily
dith walk in dark so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon day doth waste.
7 Yea at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thouland dead shall be:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet naut thou be free.
8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard:
That even like to their desert
the wicked have reward.
9 For why? O Lord, I only lust to stay my hope on thee:
And in the highest I put my trust,
my forte defence is he.
10 Thoa shalt not need none ill to fear,
wth thee it shall be well:
Nor yet the plague shall once come neath
the House where thou dost dwell.
11 For why? unto his Angels all with charge command fed he,
That still in all thy ways they shall prevale and prosper thee.
12 And in their hands shall bear thee still waiting thee upon: (up
So that thy foot shall never chance to spurn at any stone.
13 Upon the Lions thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long:
And tread upon the Lions young,
with Dragons stout and strong.
14 For he that traueth unto me,
I will acquit him quite:
And him defend because that he
dth know my Name aright.
15 Whea he for help on me doth cry
an adwer I will give:
And from his grief take him will I in glory for to live. (wealth 16 With length of years and da's of
I will fulfil hi time:
The goodness of my saving health,
I will declare to him.

PSALM xcli. J. H.

IT is a thing both good and meet,
To praise the highest Lord:

G. 3.

And

And to thy Name, O thou' most high,
to sing with one accord.
 2 To shew the kindness of the Lord,
before ere day be light:
 And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.
 3 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
on Lute and Harp so sweet:
 With all the mirth you can invent of instruments most meet.
 4 For thou hast made me to rejoice
in things so wrought by thee:
 And I have joy in heart and voice,
thy handy-works to see.
 5 O Lord, how glorious and how great are all thy works so stout?
 So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can try them out.
 6 The man unwise hath not the wit,
these things to pass to bring:
 And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.
 7 When so the wicked at their will,
as grafts do spring full fast:
 They when they flourish in their ill,
for ever shall be waste.
 8 But thou art mighty, Lord most High,
yea thou dost reign therefore:
 In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.
 9 For why? O Lord behold and see,
behold thy foes I say:
 How all that work iniquity shall perish and decay.
 10 But thou like as an: Unicorn
Shalt lift my horn on high:
 Wish fresh and new prepared oys,
thine oynted King am I.
 11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame:
 Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the same.
 12 The just shall flourish up on high,
as Date-trees bud and blow:
 And as the Cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.
 13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our G d:
 Within his Courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.
 14 And in their age much fruit shall both fat and well be seen: (bring
And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughs and branches green.
 15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will:
 He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
in him there is none ill.

PSALM XCIII. J. H.

 The Lord as King alioth doth reign,
with glory godly sight:
 And he to shew his strength most main,
hath girt himself with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath and shaped it so sure; (made No might can make it more or stale,
at stay it doth endure.
 3 Ere that the world was made or thy seat was set before; (wrought Beyond all time that can be thought thou hast been evermore.
 4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they roar and make a noise:
 The floods (I say) did enterprise,
and listed up their voice.
 5 Yea though the storms arise in fight,
though Seas do rage and swell:
 The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high dwth dwell.
 6 And look what promise he doth make:
his household to defend:
 For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

PSALM xciv. J. H.

O Lord thou dost revenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:
 Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.
 2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guide, Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.
 3 How long shall wicked men bear sway
with lifting up their voice?
 How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoice? (out 4 How long shall they with brags burst and proudly prate their fill:
 Shall they rejoice that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill?
 5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage,
they spoil and vex full sore:
 Aginst thy people they do rage,
still daily more and more.
 6 The widows which are comfortless,
and strangers they destroy:
 They slay the children fatherlets,
and none doth put them by.
 7 And when they take thole things in this talk they have of thee: (hand
Can Jacobs God this understand:
tut, no, he cannot see.
 8 O folk unwise, and people rude,
Sene knowledge now discern:
 Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.
 9 The Lord which made the ear of man,
he needs of right must hear:
 He made the eye, all things must then,
before his sight appear.
 10 The Lord doth all the world correct
and make them understand:
 Shall he not then your deeds direct:
how can you scape his hand?

The second Part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he sees full plain; (man,
The

PSALM XCV, XCVI.

The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth and findeth them but vain. (seen 12 But Lord that man is happy sure, whom thou dost keep in awe:
And through correction dost procure to teach him in thy Law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit:

When wicked men shall be supprest.
and fall into the pit.

14 For surely the Lord will not refuse his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did chuse,
he will no time forsake.

15 Until that Judgment be decreed to justice to convert:
That all may follow her with speed,
that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part shall stand against the curted train?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain?

17 Except the Lord had been mine aid, mine enemies to repel:
My soul and life had now been laid almost as low as hell.

18 When I did say my foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:
Thy goodness, Lord, did so provide to stay me up withal.

19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort find:
Then Lord thy goodness did me touch,
and that did ease my mind.

20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy self and draw with wicked men to sit:
Which with pretence instead of law,
much mischief do commit?

21 For they consult against the life of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are rife,
to shed the guiltless blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence or rock:
He is my God, to whom I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefs themselves to annoy: (all)
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

PSALM XCV. J. H.

O Come let us lift up our voice,
and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoice
let us with one accord.
2 Yea let us come before his face,
to give him thanks and praise:
In singing Psalms unto his grace,
let us be glad always,
3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God:
A King above all Gods, throughout
in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deep and corners of the land:
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come, let us bow and praise the Lord
before him let us fall:
And kneel to him with one accord:
the which hath made us all,

7 For why? he is the Lord our God;
for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep, and he our guide.

8 Today it ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart
As ye with grudging many a year
provok'd me in desert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove:
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would not move.

10 Twice twenty years they did me and I to them did say, (grieve)
They err in heart and not believe,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherefore I sware, when that my was kindled in my breast, (wrath)
That they should never tread the path,
to enter in my rest.

PSALM XCVI. J. H.

Sing ye writh psale unto the Lord
new longs with joy and mirth
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea sing unto the Lord I say
psale ye his holy Name:
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare,
in all the world throughout.

4 For why, the Lord is much of might
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk are Idols that will fade:
But yet our God, he is the Lord that hath the heavens made.

6 All Praile and honour eke do dwel
for eyre before his face:
Both power and might likewise excel within this holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
Ye people of the world;
All night and worship eke I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.

C 4.

Psalm XCVII, XCVIII, XCIX.

Ascribe unto the Lord also,
the glory of his Name:
And eke unto his courts do go,
with gifts unto the same.

The second Part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord
within his Temple bright:
Let all the people of the world
be fearful at his sight.
10 Tell all the world, be not aghast,
the Lord doth reign above:
Yea he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move.
11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might:
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.
12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoice:
The sea and all that is therein,
shall shout and make a noise.
13 The field shall joy, and every thing that springeth on the earth:
The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth.
14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might:
When he shall justly Judge the world,
and rule his folks with right.

PSALM xcviij. J. H.

THe Lord doth reign, whereat the may joy with pleasant voices: (earth eke the Isles with joyful mirth
may triumph and rejoice.
2 Both clouds and darkness eke do swell
and round about him beat:
Yea right and justice ever dwell,
and bide about his seat.
3 Yea fire and heat at once do ran,
and go before his face:
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.
4 His lightning eke full bright did blaze
and to the world appear:
Whereat the earth did look and gaze,
with dread and deadly fear.
5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord:
They fled before that Rulers might,
which guideth all the world.
6 The heavens eke declare & shew
his Justice forth abroad:
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.
7 Confusion sure will come to such as worship idols vain:
And eke to those that glory much,
dumb pictures to maintain.
8 For all the idols of the world which they as Gods do call,
shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.
9 With Joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Juda shall rejoice.

For at thy Judgments they shall sing
and make a pleasant noise:
10 That thou, O Lord, art set on high
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously above each other God.

11 all ye that fear the Lord, do this,
hate all things that are ill:
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.
12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:
Great Joy with gladness, mirth and Joll
to them of upright heart.
Ye righteous in the Lord rejoice,
his holiness proclaim;
Be thankful eke with heart and voice,
and mindful of the same.

PSALM xcviij. J. H.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song, (world
For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and strong.
2 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes devour:
And get himself the victory,
with his own arm and power.
3 The Lord doth make his people know his saving health and might:
The Lord doth eke his Justice show
in all the heathen sight.
4 His grace and truth to Israel,
in mind he doth record:
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodness of the Lord.
5 Be glad in him with joyful voyce.
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoice,
to him with Joy and mirth.
6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with Psalms:
Rejoyce before the Lord our King,
with Trumpets and with Shalsms.
7 Yea let the Sea with all therein
for Joy both roar and swell:
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwelt.
8 And let the floods rejoice their fills,
and clap their hands ipeace:
And eke the mountains and the hills
before the Lord his face.
9 For he shall come to Judge and try
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightily
with Justice and with right.

PSALM xcix. J. H.

THe Lord doth reign, altho at it
the people rage full sore:
Yea he in Cherubins doth sit,
though all the world doth roar.
2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell, is high and wondrous great:
Above all folk he doth excel,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty Name,
for it is fearful sure;
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.
4 The Princeely power of our King
doth love judgment and right, Thou rightly rulest every thing,
in Jacob through thy might.
5 To praise the Lord our God devise all honour to him do:
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.
6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call,
When they did pray he heard them
and gave them anwer all. (well, 7 Within the cloud to them he spake
then did they labour still,
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them until.
8 O Lord our God thou didst them hear,
and answeredst them agtin,
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintain.
9 O laud and praise our God and Lord within his holy hill.
For why? our God throughout the world is holy ever still.

PSALM C. J. H.

1 All people that on earth do dwelle,
Sing to the Lord with a cheerful voice,
2 His serue with fear his praise forth come ye before him & rej yce. (tell,
3 The Lord is God ye know indeed, without our aid He did us make,
We are his flock he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.
4 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto,
Praise, laud and bles his Name always,
for it is seemly so to do.
5 For why the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever fare,
His truth at all times firmly stod,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same by J. H.

1 N God the Lord be glas and light,
praise him throughout the earth,
Serve him and come before his sight
with singing and with mirth.
2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep.
Not we our selves, for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.
3 O go into his gates always,
give thanks within the same,
Within his Courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy Name.
4 For why the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign,
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remain.

PSALM CI. N.

1 Mercy will and Judgment sing,
O Lord God unto thee,
2 And wisely do in perfect way
until thou come to me.
And in the midst of my house walk,
in purenes of my spirit,
3 And in no kind of wicked thing
will set before my sight,
I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me:
4 From me shall part the froward heart
none evil will I see.
5 Him will I strok that slandereth his neighbour pitily
The lothy heart I cannot bear,
Nor him that looketh high.
6 Mine eyes shall be on them within,
the land that fruitful be,
In perfect way who walketh, shall be servant unto me, 7 I will no guileful person have within my house to dwell,
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.
8 Setimes I will destroy even all the wicked of the Land;
That I may from Gods City cut,
the wicked workers hand.

PSALM CII. N.

1 O Hear my Prayer, Lord, and let my cry come unto thee,
2 In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine ear to me, make haft
to hear me when I call,
For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my days consume and fall.
4 And as an hearth my bones are burn,
my heart is smitten dead,
And withers like the Gras, that forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin,
6 As Pelican in wilderness,
such case now am I in,
7 And as an Owl in desartis,
so I am such an one,
I watch, and as the Sparrow on the horse top, am alone.
8 Lord daily in reprochful wise,
mine enemies do me scorn,
And they that do me wrong, rage,
against me they have sworn.
9 Surely with allies as with bread,
mine hunger I have fill'd.
And mingled have my drink with tea
that from mine eyes have stil'd.
10 Because of thy displeasure Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain,
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again,

¶ 1 The daies wherein I pass my life,
are like the fleeting made:
And I am withered like the grass,
which soon away doth fade.
¶ 2 But thou, O Lord forever doft remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

¶ 3 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend:
The time of Mercy, now the time
foreset is come to end.
¶ 4 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sprite.
¶ 5 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy name:
And all the Kings on earth shall dread,
thy glory and thy fame. (God)
¶ 6 Then when the Lord the mighty again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most noble in his glory shall appear.

¶ 7 To prayer of the desolate,
when he himself doth bend:
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.
¶ 8 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated
the Lord's renown shall spread.
¶ 9 For he from his high Sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord beheld the earth also.
¶ 10 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry:
And that he might deliver those that damned are to dy.

¶ 11 That they in Sion may declare
the Lord's most holy name:
And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same.
¶ 12 Then when the people of the land and Kingdom, with accord, Shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The Third Part.

¶ 13 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
And shorter he hath cut my daies,
thus I therfore did say:
¶ 14 My God, in midit of all my daies
now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally,
from age to age I say.
¶ 15 Thou the foundation of the earth
before all times hast laid:
And Lord, the heavens are the work which thine own hands have made.

¶ 26 Yet they shall and decay,
but thou shalt carry still:
And they shall all in time wax old,
even as a garment will.
¶ 27 Thou as a garment shall them change and changed they shall be:
But thou shalt still abide the same,
thy years do never flee.
¶ 28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure.
And thy in fight their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

PSALM ciii, T. S.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name.
¶ 2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts
shew not thy self unkind,
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy mind.
¶ 3 That gave thee pardon for thy and thee restor'd again. (faults,
For all thy weak and frail disease
and heal d thee of thy pain.
¶ 4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.
¶ 5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle casts her bish.
whereby her age renu'eth.
¶ 6 The Lord with Justice doth repay
all such as be opprest:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.
¶ 7 His way and his commandements to Moses he did shew:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.
¶ 8 The Lord is kind and merciful
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.
¶ 9 He chides us not continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinful life.
¶ 10 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth not us reward.
¶ 11 But as the space is wondrous 'twixt earth & heaven above: (great
So is his goodness much more large to them that do him love.
¶ 12 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all.
As far as is the Sun-rising full distant from his fall.

The second Part.

- 13 And look what pity parents dear unto their Children bear, Like pity beareth God to such as worship him in fear. (shape,
- 14 The Lord that made us, knows our our mold and fashion just: How weak and frail our nature is and how we are but dust.
- 15 And how the time of mortal men is like the withering hay: Or like the flower right fair in field that fades full soon awav.
- 16 Whole glofs and beauty stormy douterly disgrace: (winds) And make that after their assaults such blossoms have no place.
- 17 But yet the goodness of the Lord with his shall ever stand: Their childrens children shall receive his righteousness at hand.
- 18 I mean which keep his covenant with all their whole desire: And not forget to do the thing that he doth them require.
- 19 The Heavens high are made the and foot-stool of the Lord: And by his power imperial he governs all the world.
- 20 Ye Angels which are great in power praise ye and Bleſſ the Lord: Which to obey and do his will, immediately accord.
- 21 Ye noble host and Ministers, ceale not to laud him still: Which ready are to execute his pleasure and his will.
- 22 Yea all his Works in every place praise ye his holy Name: My heart, my mind, and eke my foul praise ye also the same.

PSALM civ. W. K.

MY soul praise the Lord, speak good of his name. O Lord our great God, how dost thou appear? So passing in glory that great is thy fame: Honour and Majesty in thee shine most clear.

2 With light as a robe thou hast thee beclad; Whereby all the earth thy greatness may see. The heaven in such sort thou also hast spread, That it to a curtain compared may be.

3 His chamber-beams lie in the clouds full sure, Which as his chariot are made him to bear.

- And there with much swiftnes his course doth endure, Upon the wings riding of winds in the air.
- 4 He maketh his spirits as Herald to go: And Lightnings to serve, we see also prest: His will to accomplish, they run to and fro. To fave or consume things as seemeth him best.
- 5 He groundeth the earth so firmly and fast, That it once torn we none shall have such power.
- 6 The deep a fair covering for it made thou hast: Which by his own nature the hills would devour.
- 7 But at thy rebuke the waters do flee: And so give due place thy word to obey: At thy voice of thunder so fearful they be: (seat) That i their great raging they haſt ſoon away.
- 8 The mountains full high they then up ascend: If thou doſt but ſpeak, thy word they fulfi; Solikewife the vallies most quickly descend. Where thou them appointeſt remain they do ſtill.
- 9 Their boundeſt thou haſt ſet, how far they ſhall run: So that in their rage not that yas they canſt For God hath appointed they ſhall not return. The earth to deſtroy more, which made was for man.

The second Part.

- 10 He ſendeth the springs to strong streams or lakes Which run do full swift among the huge hills.
- 11 Where both the wild Affes their thirſt oft times flakē And beaſts of the mountains thereof drink their fills.
- 12 By these pleafant springs of fountainſ full fair, The towls of the Air abide thare and dwell Who moved by nature to hop here and there, Among the green branchē their longe ſhall exel.

- 13 The mountains so moist,
the clouds he doth use:
14 The earth with his works is wholly replete;
15 So as the brute cattel
he doth not refuse:
But grafts doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.
16 Yea bread, wine, and oyl
he made for mans sake:
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.
17 The Cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make:
Which trees he doth nourish that grow up so long.
18 In these may birds build,
and make there their nests,
In firr-trees the Storks remain and abide.
19 The high hills are succours
for wild goats to rest:
And eke the rocks stony for Conies to hide.
20 The Moon then is set her leafons to run:
The daies from the night,
thereby to discern:
And by the descending
also of the Sun,
The cold from the heat alway thereby we do learn.
21 When darkness doth come
by Gods will and power:
Then creep forth do all the beasts of the wood.
22 The Lions range roaring their prey to devour.
But yet it is thou Lord
which givest them food.
23 As soon as the Sun
is up they retire;
To couch in their dens,
then are they full fain:
24 That man to his work may as right doth require:
Till night come and call him
to take rest again.
- The Third Part.
- 25 How sundry O Lord,
are all thy works found?
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth found;
And as for thy riches,
they pass all mens thoughts.
26 So is the great Sea,
which large is and broad;
Where things that creep swarm and beasts of each sort.
27 There both mighty Ships sail,
and some lie at roads:

- The Whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport, 28 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve,
And thou in due time
fall well dost them feed.
29 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give;
They rather fall gladly
those things which they need.
Thou openest thy hand,
and they find such grace,
That they with good things,
are filled we see.
30 But sore are they troubled,
if thou turn thy face,
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.
31 Again when thy Spirit
from thee doth proceed,
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue,
Then are they created
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodness
the dry earth renew.
32 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoice.
33 His looks can the earth make to tremble full fast:
And likewise the mountains
to smoak at his voice.
34 To this Lord and God
sing will I always,
So long as I live,
my God praise will I.
35 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please,
I will rejoice in him,
to him will I cry.

36 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire,
And eke the perverse,
them root out with shame.
But as for my soul now
let it still desire,
And sive with the faithful,
praise ye the Lord Name.

PSALM Cv. N.
1 Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name,
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.
2 Sing ye unto the Lord I say,
and sing unto his praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought alwayes.
3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoice with one accord,
And let the heart also rejoice
of them that seek the Lord.

Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might,
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his sight.

6 The wondrous works that he hath keep still in mindful heart, (done Ne let the judgments of his mouth out of your mind depart.

6 Ye that of faithful Abraham
his servant are the seed;
Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he only is I say,
the mighty Lord our God,
And his most righteous judgments are through all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant which he hath made to his,
He hath remembred evermore
to thousands of degrees.

The second Part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago
And faithful oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.

10 And did confirm the same for law
that Jacob shoulde obey;
And for eternal covenant
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan Land will give,
The Lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live,

12 Altho the number at that time
did very small appear.

Yea, very small and in the land
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walk from land to without a sure abode, (land And while from sundry Kingdoms they did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressors hand
he suffered them to take,
But even the great and mighty Kings
reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be,
Nor do the Prophets any harm,
that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he strid the store,
But he against the time of need had sent a man before.

The third Part.

17 Even Joseph which had once been to live a slave in woe, (old Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose (foul
the Irons pierc'd also.

18 Until the time came when his cause was known apparently,
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultlesstruth did try.

19 The King sent and delivered him
from prison where he was,

20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him pass.

21 And over all his house he made him Lord to bear the sway,
And of his substance made him have the rule and all the stay.

22 That he might to his will instruct the Princes of the land.
And wisdomslore his ancient men might cause to understand.

23 Then into the Egyptian Land came Israel also,

And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly in number made to flow,
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.

25 Whose heart he turn'd that they his people did entreat. (with hate And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth Part.

26 His faithful servant Moses then and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.

27 The wondrous message of his sight
among them he did show,
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.

28 Darknes he sent, and made it dark
instead of brighter day,
And unto his Commission
they did not disobey.

29 He turn'd their waters into blood
he did their fishes slay, (place 30 Their land brought frogs even in the where their King Pharaoh lay.

31 He spake and at his voice there came great swarms of noisom flies,
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.

32 He gave them cold and stony hail instead of milder rain,
And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.

33 He smote their vines and all their whereon their figs did grow; (trees
And all their trees within their coasts down did he overthrow.

34 He spake, then Caterpillers did and Grashoppers abound,

35 Which ate the grafts in all the land and fruit of all their ground

The fifth Part.

36 The first-begotten in their land
eke deadly he did smite,

Yea the beginning and first fruit of all their force and might

37 With gold and silver he them bought from Egyptland to pass,

And

- And in the number of their Tribes
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and joyful then when they did thence depart:
For terror and the fear of them
was fall'n upon their heart,

39 To shroud them from the parching
a cloud he did display : (heat)
And fire he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked and he caused Quails
to rain at their request:
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he represt:

41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out :
And in the dry and parched ground like Rivers ran about.

42 For of his holy covenant
aye mindful was he tho:
Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago. (mirth)

43 He brought his people forth with
and his eleft with joy,
Out of the cruel land where they had liv'd in great annoy.

44 And of the heathen men he gave to them their fruitful lands:
The labour of the people eke
they took into their hands.

45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore:
And faithfully obey his laws,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM cvi. N.

- Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures foraye :
2 Who can exprest the noble acts,
or all his praise display ?
3 They blessed are that Judgment keep,
and justly do alway :
With favour of thy people (Lord)
remember me I pray.
4 And with thy saving health(O Lord)
vouchsafe to visit me :
That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see,
5 And with thy peoples joy I may a joyful mind possest:
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart express.
6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
have sinned every one :
We have committed wickednes,
and lewdly we have done.
7 The wonders great which thou haft done in Egypt land : (O Lord)
Our fathers tho they saw them all yet did not understand.
Nor yet thy mercies multitude did keep in thankful mind:
But at the sea, yea the red-sea,
rebelled most unkind.

- 8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name:
That he might make his power known,
and spread abroad his fame.
9 The red-sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dry'd:
And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.
10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despitful foe:
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second Part

- 11 The waters their oppressors
not one was left alive: (whelm'd) 12 Then they believ'd his word, and in song they did him give. (praise) 13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgot:
And for his counsel and his will they did neglect to wait.
14 But lusted in the Wilderness,
with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.
15 And then their wanton minds desire
he suffered them to have:
But wasting leanness therewithal unto their souls he gave.
16 Then when they lodged in their tents
at Moses they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they envy much.
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour:
And all Abirams company
did cover in that hour.
18 In their assembly kindled was,
the hot consuming fire:
And wasting flame did then barn up
the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an Idol Calf did frame:
And there the molten Image they did worship of the same.
20 Into the likeness of a Calf,
which feedeth on the grass, Thusthey their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.
21 And God their onely Saviour
unkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third Part

- 22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done:
And by the red-sea dreadful things performed long ago.
23 Therefore for their fo shewing them
forgetful and unkind:
To bring destruction on them all
He purpos'd in his mad.

31 Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the break
To turn his wrath, lest he on them with Slaughter should him wreak.
34 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he behight to give:
Yea and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe.
35 But in their tents with grudging
they wickedly repin'd: (heart Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning mind.
36 Therefore against them lifted he his strong revenging hand:
Them to destroy in wilderness,
or they should see the Land, 37 And to destroy their seed among the Nation with his rod:
And through the Countries of the
to scatter them abroad. (world 38 To Baal-Peor then they did adjoin themselves also:
And ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.
39 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke:
And in his sore inkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.
40 But Phineas stood up with zeal
the sinners rile to slay:
And judgment he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth Part.

31 It was imputed unto him
for righteousness that day:
And from thenceforth so counted is from race to race, I say.
32 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make:
Yea, so far forth, that Moses was then punish'd for their sake.
33 Because they vex'd his spirit so fore,
That in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.
34 Nor as the Lord commanded them
they flew the People tho.
35 But were among the heathen mix'd and learn'd their works also.
36 And did their Idols serve which were their ruine and decay:
37 To fiedest their sons and daughters did offer up and slav. (they 38 Yea with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltless blood they spilt:
Yea their own sons and daughters without all cause of guilt. (blood, Whom they to Canians Idols tho offered with wicked hand:
And with blood of innocents
desecrated was the land.
39 That were they stained with the
of their own filthy way: (works

40 And with their own inventions
a whoring they did play.
40 Therefore against his people was the Lord's wrath kindled fore:
And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.
41 Into the hands of heathen man
he gave them for a prey: (they
And made their foes their Lords, whom were forced to obey.

The fifth Part.

42 Yea and their hateful enemies
opprest them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stoop
a subject to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before:
But with their councils they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.
44 Therefore they by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie:
Yet when he law them in distress
he hearkned to their cry.
45 He called to mind his covenant which he to them had swore:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.
46 And favour he them made to find before the sight of those That led them captive from their land,
when erst they were their foes.
47 Save us O Lord that art our God,
save us (O Lord) we pray,
And from among the heathen folk
Lord gather us away,
48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name:
That we may glory in thy praise
and sounding of thy fame.
49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:
Let all the people say, Amen
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM cxi. W. K.

Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he,
And that his Mercy hath no end
all mortal men may see.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
with thanks shall praise his Name:
And shew how they from foes were free
and how he wrought the same.
3 He gathered them forth of the lands that lay so far about:
From East to West, from North to South
his hand did find them out.
4 They wandered in the Wilderness,
and strayed from the way,
And found no city where to dwell:
that serve might for their stay.
5 Whole thirst and hunger was so great,
in these deserts so void:

That

That faintness did them sore assault and eke their souls annoy'd.

6 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid,
Who did remove their troubrous state
according as they pray'd.

7 And by that way which was most he led them like a guide, (right,
That they might to a City go,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then,
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

9 For he the empty soul sustain'd whose thirst had made to faint,
The hungry soul with goodness fed,
and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as do dwell in darkness deep,
where they on death do wait,
Fast bound to tast such troubrous storms
as iron chains do threat.

The second Part.

11 For that against the Lord's own they sought for to rebel, (words Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so far excel.

12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief,
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.

13 Then they did cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid,

Who did remove their troubrous state
according as they pray'd. (brought

14 For he from darkness out them
and from death's dreadful shade, Burting with force the iron bands which them before did lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then,
And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sons of men.

16 For he threw down the gates of brass and brake them with strong hand,
The iron bars he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel
and cannot for them wend,
But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.

18 Their soul so much did loath all meat that none they could abide, Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.

19 Then they did cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid,
Who did remove their troubrous state
according as they pray'd.

20 For then he sent to them his words which health did soon restore,
And brought them from those dangers wherein they were before. (deep

The third Part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then,
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks and also fear,
And speak of all his wondrous works with glad and joyful cheer.

23 Such as in Ships and brittle barks into the Seas descend.
Their merchandise through fearful flood
to compass and to end.

24 These men are forced to behold
the Lord's works what they be,
And in the dangerous Deep the same,
most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormy wind
arifeth in a rage,
And stirreth up the surges so that nought can them asswage.

26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain,
And p'nging down the depth until their souls consume with pain.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro
now here now there they reel,
As men with fear of wit bereft,
which had of sense no feel.

28 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid,
Who did remove their troubrous state,
according as they pray'd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth the sturdy storms to cease, (make So that the great waves from their rage are brought to rest and peace.

30 Then are men glad wen rest is come which they so much did crave,
And are by him in haven brought,
which they so fain would have.

The fourth Part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then,
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folk with praise extol his Name,
And where the Elders do conuent
there let them do the same.

33 For running floods to dry deserts
he doth oft change and turn,
And drieth up as it were dust,
the springing well and bourn.

34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt tell barren he doth make,
When on their sins that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.

35 Again the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear,
With pleasant springs of waters clear though none before there were.

36 Wherein

- 16 Wherein such hungry souls are set,
as he doth freely chuse:
That they a City might them build,
to dwell in for their use.
- 17 That they may sow their pleasant and vineyards also plant, (Land
To yield them fruit of such increase,
as one may seem to want.
- 18 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth bless them so:
Who doth also the bruit beasts make by numbers great to grow.
- 19 But when the faithful are low by the oppressors stout: (brought And minish do through many plagues that compass them about:
- 20 Then doth he Princes bring to shame
which did them sore opprise:
And likewise caused them to err
within the wilderness.
- 21 But yet the poor he raiseth up out of their troubles deep:
And oft times doth his train augment much like a flock of sheep.
- 22 The righteous shall behold this fight
and also much rejoice:
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.
- 23 But who is wise that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceive the kindness of the Lord.

PSALM cxiii. J. H.

- O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving thanks also.
- 2 Awake my viol and my harp,
sweet melody to make:
And in the morning I my self right early will awake.
- 3 By me among the people Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk will sing, O Lord, to thee.
- 4 Because thy mercy, Lord, is great,
above the heavens high:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty skie.
- 5 Above the starry heavens high
exalt thy self, O God:
And Lord display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad,
- 6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty:
Help O God with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
- 7 God in his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound:
Sic hem I will divide, and mete
the vate of Succoth ground.
- 8 And Gilead shall be mine own,
Manasses mine shall be,

- My head strength Ephraim, and law
shall Juda give for me.
- 9 Moab my wash-pot, and my shoe,
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.
- 10 Who shall into the City strong
be guide to conduct me?
Or how by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be?
- 11 Is it not thou O Lord which late hast us forsaken quite?
And thou O Lord which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight.
- 12 Give us O Lord thy saving aid
when troubles do assail:
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.
- 13 Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renown:
He shall subdue our enemies
yea he shall tread them down.

PSALM cix. N.

- IN speechless silence do not hold O God thy tongue always:
O God even thou, I say, that art
the God of all my praise.
- 2 The wicked and the guileful mouth
on me disclosed be:
And they with false and lying tongues have spoken unto me.
- 3 They did beset me round about with words of hateful spight:
Without all cause of my desert against me they did fight.
- 4 For my good will they are my foes,
but then gan I to pray:
- 5 My good with ill, my friendliness with hate they did repay.
- 6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou his hateful be to stand.
- 7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sin.
- 8 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take:
- 9 His children let be fatherless
his wife a widow make.
- 10 Let his off-springs be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place,
where erit they have been fed.
- 11 Let covetous extortioners
catch all his goods and store:
And let the strangers spoil the fruit
of all his toil before.
- 12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all:

That on his children fatherless will let their mercy fall.

The second Part.

- 83 And so let his posterity
for ever be destroy'd:
Their shame out-blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.
84 Let not hi fathers wickednes
from Gods remembrance fall:
And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.
85 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for aye:
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away. — 86 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man and sought to slay
the woful hearted wight.
87 As he did cursing love, it shall betide unto him so:
And as he did not blessing love
it shall be far him stro.
88 As he with cursing clad himself,
so it like water shall Into his Bowels, and like oyl into his bones befall.
89 A garment let it be so him
to cover him for aye:
And as a girdle wherewithal he may girded be alway.
90 Lo let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe:
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.
91 But thou O Lord, which art my deal thou (I say) with me (God, After thy Name, deliver me
for great thy mercies be.
92 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor;
And eke within my pained brest
my heart is wounded sore.

The third Part.

- 93 Even so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade:
And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade, 94 With fasting long from needful food
enfeebled are my knees:
And all her fatnes hath my flesh enforced been to leese. — 95 And I also a vile reproach, to them am made to be:
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.
96 But thou O Lord that art my God,
mine aid and succour be:
According to thy mercy Lord,
save and deliver thee
97 And they shall know thereby, that Lord is thy mighty hand. (this

- And that thou, thou hast done it, Lord,
so shall they understand.
28 Although they curse with spite yet shalt bless with loving voice: (thou
They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoice, 29 Let them be clothed all with shame
that enemies are to me:
And wish confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord
And I among the multitude his praises will record, 31 For he with help at his right hand will stand the poor man by:
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

PSALM cx. N.

- T He Lord did say unto my Lord
sit thou on my right hand:
Till I have made thy foes a foot
Whereon thy feet shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the Scepter of thy might:
Amid thy mortal foes be thou
the ruler in their sight.
3 And in the day on which thy might
and power they shall see:
Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
the people offer thee, Yea, with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all.
Thy births-dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall, 4 The Lord hath sworn and never will repent what he doth say:
By th' order of Melchisedeck,
thou art a Priest for aye.
5 The Lord thy God on thy right hand that standeth for thy stay.
Shall wound for thee the stately Kings upon his wrathful day.
6 the heathen he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead:
And over divers countries shall
in funder smite the head:
7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way:
Wherefore he shall lift up on high his royal head that day.

PSALM cxi. N.

- W Ith heart I do accord,
to praise and laud the Lord:
In presence of the just.
2 For great his works are found.
To search them much are bound,
As him do love and trust.
3 His works are glorious
Also his righteousness
It doth endure for ever.
4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember should:
His mercy faileth never.

Psalm Cxii, Cxiii, Cxlv, Cxv.

65

Such as to him love bear
A portion full fair
He hath up for them laid,
For this they shall well find.
He will them have in mind,
And keep them as he said,
6 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders;
When he the Heathen land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.
7 Of all his works ensu'th
Both judgment right and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend:
8 They are decreed sure
For ever to endure
Which equity doth end.
Redemption he gave
His people for to save:
9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail,
But always to prevail,
His holy Name be fear'd.
10 Who so with heart full fain
True wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey:
Such as his laws do keep Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for aye.

PSALM Cxii. W. K.

THe man is blest that God doth fear:
And that his law doth love indeed.
2 His seed on earth God will uphold,
And bless such as from him proceed.
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteous endure shall still.
4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darkness light:
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy is always in his sight:
5 Yea pitty moveth such to lead
He doth by judgment things expand.
6 And surely such shall never fail:
For in remembrance had is he:
7 No tidings ill can make him quail,
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.
8 His heart is firm his fear is past.
For he shall see his foes down cast.
9 He did well for the poor provide,
His righteous nets shall still remain
And his estate with praise abide.
Though that the wicked men did disdain,
10 Yea gnath his teeth therat shall
And so consume his state to see. (he

PSALM cxiii. W. K.

YE children which do serve the Lord,
Traite ye his name with one accord:
2 Yea blessed be always his Name,
3 Who from the rising of the Sun,
Till it return where it begun,
Is to be praised with great fame.
The Lord all People doth furnishount,
As for his glory we may count.
Above the heavens high to bo,

5 With God the Lord who may compare Whose dwellings in the heavens are:
O such greit power and force is he,
6 As doth abale himself we know,
Things to behold both here below,
And also in heaven above.
7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poor which help none saw,
His only mercy did him move.
8 And so him set in high degree,
With Princes of great dignity.
That rule his people with great fame.
9 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear,
Therefore praise ye his holy name.

PSALM cxiv. W. W.

When Israel my Gods address
From Pharaohsland was bent
And Jacobs houle the strangers left,
and in the same train went.
2 In Judah God his glory shew'd,
and holines most bright:
3 Did the Israelites declare his kingdom, power, and might.
3 The sea it saw, and suddenly as all amaz'd did flee?
The roaring streams of Jordans flood,
recoiled backwardly.
4 As Rams afraid the mountans skipt,
their strength did them forsake:
And as the silly trembling Lambs
their tops did beat and shake.
5 What all'd the Sea as all amaz'd,
so suddenly to fly?
Ye rolling waves of Jordan flood,
why ran ye backwardly?
6 Why shook ye hills as Rams afraid,
why did your strength so shake?
Why did your tops as trembling Lambs
for fear quiver and quake?
7 O earth confess thy Sovereign Lord,
and dread his mighty hand:
Before the face of Jacobs God,
fear ye both sea and land.
8 I mean the God which from hard doth cause main floods appear: (rocks
And from the stony flint doth cause, gush out the fountains clear.

PSALM cxv. N.

Not unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy name give praise;
Both for thy mercy and thy truth,
that are in thee always.
2 Why shall the heathen scornersay where is their God become:
3 Our God in heaven is and what he will, that hath he done.
4 Their Idols silver are, and Gold, works of mens hands they be:
5 They have a mouth and do not speak,
and eyes and do not see.
6 and they have ears joyn'd to their
and do not hear at all: (head
And noses eke they formed have,
and do not smell withal.

PSALM Cxvi, Cxvii, Cxviii.

- 1 And hands have they and heads not, For largely, lo, the Lord to thee and feet and do not go:
2 Throat they have, yet through the same they make no sound to blow.
3 Those that make them are like to them and those whose trust they be:
4 O Israel trust in the Lord, whose help and shield is he.
5 O Aarons house trust in the Lord, their help and shield is he:
6 Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord, their help and shield is he.
7 The Lord hath mindful been of us, and will us bless also:
On Israel and on Aarons house, His blessings he will now.
8 Them that be fearers of the Lord, the Lord will bless them all: Even he will bless them every one, the great and even the small.
9 To you (I say) the living Lord will multiply his grace: To you and to the Children that shall follow of your race.
10 Ye are the blessed of the Lord, even of the Lord I say: Which both the Heaven and the earth hath made and set in stay.
11 The Heavens, yea the Heavens high belong unto the Lord: The earth unto the sons of men he gave of free accord.
12 They that be dead do not with praise set forth the Lords renown; Nor any that into the place of silence do go down. (God)
13 But we will praise the Lord our from henceforth and for aye: Sound ye the praises of the Lord, praise ye the Lord I say.

PSALM cxvi. N.

- 1 Love the Lord, because my voice and prayer heard hath he;
2 When in my days I call'd on him, he bow'd hi-ear to me.
3 Even when the snares of cruel death about beset me round: When pains of Hell me caught and when I wo and sorrow found.
4 Upon the name of God my Lord, then did I call, and say, Deliver thou my soul, O Lord, I do thee humbly pray.
5 The Lord is very merciful, and just he is also: And in our God compassion doth plentifully flow.
6 The Lord in safety doth preserve all those that simple be; I was in woful misery, he deliv'erd me.
7 And now my soul sith thou art safe, return unto thy rest:

- 8 Because thou hast delivered my soul from deadly thrall: My moistned eyes from mournful tears, my sliding feet from fall.
9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore:
10 I did believe, therefore I speake, for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

- 11 I said in my distrels and fear that all men lyars be:
12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?
13 The whole som cup of saving health I thankfully will take: And on the Lords Name I will call, when I my prayers make.
14 I to the Lord will pay my vows, that I to him behight: Yea, even at this present time in all his peoples sight:
15 Right dear and precious in his sight, the Lord doth aye esteem The death of all his holy ones, what ever men do deem.
16 Thy servant Lord, thy servant lo, I do my self confes, Son of thy handmaid: thou hast broke the bonds of my distrels.
17 and I will offer up to thee a sacrifice of praise: And I will call upon the Name of God the Lord always.
18 I to the Lord will pay the vows that I have him behight: Yea even at this present time in all his peoples sight, 19 Yea in the courts of his own house and in the midst of thee, O thou Jerusalerm, I say, wherefore the Lord praise ye.

PSALM cxvii. N.

- O All ye nations of the world, praise ye the Lord always: And all ye people every where set forth his noble praise.
2 For great his kindness is to us his truth endures for aye: Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God, praise ye the Lord I say.

PSALM cxviii. N.

- O Give ye thanks unto the Lord, for gracious is he: Because his mercy doth endure for ever towards thee.
2 Let Israel confess and say, his mercy dures for for aye:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say, his mercy dures for aye,
4 Let all that fear the Lord our God even now confess and say:

The

the mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for aye.
In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cri'd:
Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.
The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt:
Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.
The Lord doth take my part with that help to succour me: (then) Therefore I shall see my desire upon mine enemy.
Better it is to trust in God,
than in man's mortal seed:
Or to put confidence in Kings,
or Princes in our need.
All Nations have enclosed me,
and compassed me round:
But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.
They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in I say:
But in the Lord's most mighty Name,
I shall work their decay.
They came about me all like Bees,
But yet in the Lord's Name Quench'd their thorns that were on fire and will destroy the same.

The second Part.

Thou hast with force thrust sore at that I indeed might fall: (me But through the Lord I found such help that they were vanquish'd all.
The Lord is my defence and strength
my Joy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed,
a Saviour most strong.
The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to pass great things.
He causeth voice of Joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.
The right hand of the Lord doth most mighty things to pass: (bring His hand hath the preheminence, his force is as it was.
I shall not die, but ever live to utter and declare
The Lord his insight and wondrous pow'- his works and what they are. er.
The Lord himself hath chastened,
and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet
to death as ye may see.
Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them,
the Lord's praise to express.
This is the gate even of the Lord
which shall not so be shut:
But good and righteous men alway shall enter into it.

The third Part.

I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me;
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.
The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused:
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be used.
This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lord's own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble act,
This is the joyful day indeed
which God himself hath wrought:
Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in mind, in thought.
Now help us, Lord, and prosper us,
we wish with one accord:
Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.
God is the Lord that shews us light,
bind we therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the Altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.
Thou art my God, I will confess,
and render thanks to thee.
Thou art my God, and I will praise thy mercy towards me.
Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards me.

PSALM Cxix. W. W.

ALEPH.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in mind and heart:
Whose lives and conversations from God's laws never start.
Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their hearts,
and never from him swerve.
Doubtless such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing:
Which steadfastly walk in his way without any wandring.
It is thy will and commandment
that with attentive heed Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.
O would to God it might thee please my ways so to address
That I might both in heart and voice
thy Laws keep and confess:
So should no shame my life attain,
whilst thus I let mine eyes,
And bend my mind always to muse
on thy sacred decrees.
Then will I praise with upright heart,
and magnifie thy Name:
When I shall learn thy judgments just,
and likewise prove the same.

8 And

8 And wholly will I give my self to keep thy laws most right.
For sake me not for ever Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

BETH The second Part.

- 9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.
- 10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.
- 11 Within my heart & secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.
- 12 We magnifie thy Name O Lord,
and prale thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord teach me therefore.
- 13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach
and publish day and night,
The judgments all, which did proceed from thy mouth full of might.
- 14 Thy testimonies and thy ways,
pleafe me no leſs indeed:
Than all the treasures of the earth
which worldlings make their meed.
- 15 Of thy precepts I will ſtill muse,
and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark ſo will I aim thy ways how I may walk.
- 16 My only joy ſhall be ſo fix'd,
and on thy laws ſo fet:
That nothing can me ſo far blind,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL The third Part.

- 17 Grant to thy servant now ſuch grace
As may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keep,
both in my heart and tongue.
- 18 Mine eyes which were dim, & ſhut to open and make bright. (up)
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.
- 19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here, now there:
Thy word therefore to me diſclose,
my foot-steps for to clear.
- 20 My ſoul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at reſt:
But ſeeks to know thy judgments high,
and what may please thee beſt.
- 21 The proud men, and malicious,
thou haſt deſtroy'd each one:
And cursed are they as do not thy hefts attend upon.
- 22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame
which wicked men conſpire:
For I haue kept thy covenants with zeal as hot as fire.

- 23 The Princes great in coucil late,
and did againſt me ſpeak:
But then thy Servant thought how he thy ſtatutes might not break.
- 24 For why? thy covenants are my joy
and my hearts great ſolace:
They ſerve instead of counſellers,
my matters for to paſſ.

DALETH The fourth Part.

- 25 I am alas, as brought to grave,
and almoſt turn'd to duft:
Reſtore therefor my life again,
as thy promife is just.
- 26 My ways when I acknowledged,
with mercy thou didſt hear:
Hear now eft-ſoon, and me inſtruct
thy laws to love and fear.
- 27 Teach me once throughly for to thy precepts and thy lore: (know) Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in ſtore.
- 28 My foul I feel ſo lone oppreſt,
that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore,
haſte Lord to ſend relief.
- 29 From lying and deceitful lips
Let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me ſend.
- 30 The way of truth both ſtraight and I haue choſen and found: (lure)
I ſet thy judgments me before,
which keep me ſafe and found.
- 31 Since then (O Lord) I forc'd my thy covenants to embrace: (lef)
Let me therefore haue no rebuke,
nor check in any caſe.
- 32 Then will I run with joyful chear
where thy word doth me call:
When thou haſt ſet my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE The fifth Part.

- 33 Inſtruct me Lord in the right trade
of thy ſtatutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end,
my heart will I incline.
- 34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law
and I ſhall it obey.
With heart, and mind, and all my might
I will it keep I ſay.
- 35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me Lord I require:
None other pleaſure do I wiſh,
nor greater thing deſire.
- 36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from all filthy avarice,
Lord ſhield me with thy grace.
- 37 From vain deſires and worldy luſt
turn back mine eyes and ſight:
Give me the ſpirit of life and power,
to walk thy ways aright.
- 38 Confirm thy gracious promife Lord which

which thou hast made to me.
Which art thy servant, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.
49 Reproach and shame which I do fear
from me O Lord expell:
for thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excell.
50 Behold my hearts desire is bent
thy laws to keep for aye:
Lord strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

VAV. The sixth Part.

51 Thy mercies great and manifold let me obtain O Lord:
Thy saving health let me enjoy
according to thy word.
52 So shall I stop the slanderous mouths
of lewd men and unjust:
For in thy faithful promises stands my comfort and trust.
53 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest:
For in thy judgments wonderful
my hope doth stand and rest.
54 And whilst that breath within my doth natural life preserve: (breſt Yea till this world shall be dissolv'd, thy law will I observe.
55 So walk will I, as set at large,
and made free from all dread:
Because I sought how for to keep thy precepts and thy read.
56 Thy noble acts I will describe as things of most great fame:
Even before Kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.
57 I will rejoice then to obey thy worthy hefts and will:
Which evermore I have lov'd best:
and so will love them still.
58 My hands I will lift to thy laws,
which I have dearly sought:
And practise thy commandements
in will, in deed, in thought.

ZAIN. The seventh Part.

59 Thy promise which thou mad'st to thy servant, Lord, remeber. (me
For therein do I put my trust,
and confidence for ever.
60 It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me assail:
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.
61 The proud & such as God contemn,
still made of me a scorn:
Yet would I not thy law forsake:
as he that were forlorn. (work 62 But call to mind, Lord, thy great shew'd to our fathers old:
Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.
63 But yet alas for fear I quake,

seeing how wicked men Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgments upon them.
54 And as for me, I fram'd my song,
thy statutes to exalt:
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy name, O Lord,
by night, when others sleep:
As for thy law, also I kept,
and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtain because thy covenants sweet and dear
I did embrace and also keep with reverence and with fear.]

HETH. The eighth Part.

57 O God which art my part and lot;
my comfort and my stay:
I have decreed and promised thy law to keep alway.
58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
In presence of thy face:
As thib therefore hast promised
Lord, grant me of thy grace.
59 My life I have examined,
and try'd my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.
60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothful are:
But hasti:y thy laws to keep,
I did my self prepare.
61 The cruel hands of wicked men
have made of me their prey:
Yet would I not thy laws forget,
nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous judgments towards so great are and so high: (me That even at midnight will I rise
thy name to magnifie.
63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their hearts:
And never will for love or dread,
from thy commandments start.
64 Thy mercies Lord most plenteously do all the world fulfill.
O teach me how I may obey,
thy statutes and thy will.
TETH. The ninth Part.

65 According to thy promise Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundry sorts have I thy Servant felt.

66 Teach me to judge always aright,
and give me knowledge sure:
For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 E're thou didst touch me with thy
I err'd and went astray: (god
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art most good and gracious,

Psalm Cxix.

- and givest most liberally Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore O Lord teach me.
- 69 The proud and wicked men have against me many a lie: (forg'd Yet thy commandments still observe with all my heart will I. (wealth,
- 70 Their hearts are swoln with worldly
as grease so are they fat.
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.
- 71 O happy time may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy laws thy rod did me direct.
- 72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold:
Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.
- JOD The tenth part.
- 73 Seeing thy hands have made me
to be thy creature: (Lord, Grant knowledg likewise how to learn to put thy laws in ure.
- 74 So they that hear thee shall rejoice,
when ever they me see:
Because I have learn'd by thy word,
to put my trust in thee.
- 75 When with thy rod the world is I know the case is just: (plagu'd
o when thou dost correct me Lord,
the cause just needs be must.
- 76 Now of thy goodness I thee pray,
some comfort to me send:
So thou to me hast promised,
so from all ill me shend.
- 77 Thy tender mercy pour on me,
and I shall surely live:
For Joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give. (tence
- 78 Confound the proud whose false pre-
is me for to destroy:
But as for me thy hefts to know
I will my self imploy.
- 79 Whoso with reverence doth thee fear,
to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.
- 80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy laws be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
whereby I shold be shent.
- CAPH. The eleventh Part.
- 81 My soul doth faint and ceaseth not,
thy saving health to crave,
And for thy words sake still I trust,
my hearts desire to have.
- 82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say:
O when wilt thou comfort, Lord,
why dost thou thus delay?
- 83 As a skin bottle in the smoke
- so am I parch't and dri'd.
Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandments slide.
- 84 Alas how long shall I yet live,
before I see the hour,
That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?
- 85 Presumptuous men have digged pits
thinking to make me sure, Thus contrary to thy law
my hurt they do procure.
- 86 But thy commandments are all sure,
and causles they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou mightie me relieve.
- 87 Almost they had me clean destroy'd,
and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abide,
and therein succour found.
- 88 Restore me Lord again to life,
for thy mercies excel:
And so shall I thy covenant keep,
till death my life expel.
- LAMED. The twelfth Part.
- 89 In heaven Lord where thou dost thy word is stablith fire: (dwell
And shall for all eternity,
fast graven there endure,
- 90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witness;
Whose ground-work thou haft laid so sure
as no tongue can exprest.
- 91 Even to this day we may well see how all things persevere
According to thine Ordinance,
for all things thee do fear.
- 92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distress
I had been brought to nought.
- 93 Therefore I will thy precepts aye
in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd
when I was at last cast.
- 94 No white to me can title make,
for I am only thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy laws,
mine ears and heart incline,
- 95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and theretofre lie in wait,
But I the while considered
Thy noble works and great.
- 96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath no end,
But thy commandments and thy word beyond all bounds extend.
- MEM. The thirteenth Part.
- 97 What great desire and fervent love,
do I bear to thy law?
All the day long I meditate on it with reverent awe.
- 98 Thy word hath taught me far to pass my

my foes in policy:
Till I hold it as a thing of most excellency.

My teachers which did me instruct,
In knowledge I excel:
Because I do thy covenants keep,
And them to others tell.
100 In wisdom I do pass also
The ancient men indeed:
And all because to keep thy laws,
I held it aye best reed.

101 My feet I have refrained eke
From every evil way:
Because that I continually
Thy word might keep I say: (ments,
102 I have not swerv'd from thy judg-
Nor yet shrank any dell:
For why? thou hast me taught thereby,
To live godly and well.

103 O Lord how sweet unto my taste
Find I thy words alway,
Doublets no honey in my mouth
Feel ought so sweet I may.

104 Thy laws have me such wisdom
That utterly I hate (learn'd
All wicked and ungodly ways,
In every kind or rate.

NUN. The fourteenth Part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
So doth thy word shine bright:
And to my paths where ever I go,
It is a flaming light.

106 I have both sworn and will perform
My promises doublets,
That I will keep thy judgments just,
And them in life express.

107 Affliction hath me sore opprest,
And brought me to deaths door:
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
So me to life restore. (voice

108 The offerings which with heart and most frankly I thee give,
Accept, and teach me how I may
After thy judgments live.

109 My soul is ay so in my hand,
That dangers me assail:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
Nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets,
To catch me at a bay:
Yet did I not from thy precepts
Once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway,
As mine own heritage;
And why? for therein I delight,
And set my whole courage.

112 For evermore I have been bent
Thy statutes to fulfill:
Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

SAMECH, The fifteenth Part.

113 The crafty thoughts & double hearts

I do always detest:
But as for thy laws and preceps,
I love them ever best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place
My shield and strong defence:
Therefore have I thy promises
Look'd for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
Depart from me anon:
For the Commandments will I keep
Of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promis'd so perform,
That death me not affai:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
That through distrust I quail.

117 Uphold me and I shall be safe,
For ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take
Will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet:
As do thy statutes break:
For nought avails their subtily.
Their council is but weak. { out

119 Like dross thou cast'st the wicked
Where ere they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy flautes
Love nothing half so well.

120 My flesh alas is taken with fear,
As though it were benumm'd:
For when I see thy judgments straight
I am as one aston'd.

AIN. The sixteenth Part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is,
And give to all men right:
Resign me not to them that would Oppress me with their might.

122 But for thy servant surely be,
In that thing that is good:
That proud men give me nor the foil
Which rage as they were wood:

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blind
Thy help so much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
Whereby thou wilt me save.

124 Intreat thy servant lovingly,
And favour to him show:
Thy statutes of most excellency
Teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant (Lord) I am
Grant me to understand,
How by thy statutes I may know
Best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time (Lord) to begin,
For truth is quite decaid:
Thy law likewise they have transgreſſed
And none against them said.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
Thy laws better than gold,
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
Most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy preceps all most j.a.
And so them laid in store:
All crafty and malicious ways
I do abhor therefore.

PE. The seventeenth Part.

139 Thy covenants are most wonderful and full of things profound :
My soul therefore doth keep them sure
when they are try'd and found.

140 When men first enter into thy word,
they find a light most clear:
And very ideots understand,
when they it read or hear.

141 For joy I have both gap'd & breth'd to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.

142 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above :
As thou art wont to behold such,
as thy name fear and love.

143 Direct my footsteps by thy Word,
that I thy will might know :
And never let iniquity thy servant overthrow. (harms)

144 From slanderous tongues and deadly preserve and keep me sure :
Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in ure.

145 Thy countenance which doth sur-
the Sun in his bright hue, (mount, Let shine on me, and by thy law teach me what to eschew.

146 Out of mine eyes great floods gush of dreary tears that fall : (out When I behold how wicked men thy laws kept not at all.

TEADDI. The eighteenth Part.

147 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge :
And when thou doft sentence pronounce thou art a righteous judge.

148 To render right & free from guile,
are two chief points most high :
And such as thou haft in thy law commanded us straightly.

149 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd and even pin'd away :

To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.

150 So pure and perfect is thy Word,
as any heart can deem :
And I thy servant nothing more do love or yet esteem.

151 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree

Yet do I not thy laws forgoe,
nor shrink away from thee.

152 Thy righteousness (Lord) is most for ever to endure : (just,
Also thy Law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

153 Trouble and grief have seiz'd on me and brought me wondrous low :
do I fill of thy precepts
desire to hear and know,

144 The righteousness of thy judgment
doth last for evermore :
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

KOPH. The nineteenth Part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and cri'd
now answer me, O Lord :
That thy commandments to observe
I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my suit
with most humble requests :
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy hefts.

147 To thee I cry even in the morn,
before the day wax light :
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole pight.

148 Mine eyes prevent the watch bynight
and ere they call I wake :
That by devising on thy Word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice and pity on me take :
As thou was wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw near and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gone back,
and afraid from it lewdly.

151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou for need doth so require, (near
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.

152 But thy commandments have I learnt
not now, but long ago :
That they remain for evermore,
thou haft them grounded so.

RESH. The twentieth Part.

153 My trouble and affliction,
confider and behold :
Deliver me, for of thy law,
I ever take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause with speed some succour send ;
From death (as thou haft promised)
Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, far they are from having health and grace :
Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the race.

156 Great are thy mercies, Lord I, grant
what tongue can them attain,
And as thou haft me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.

157 Though many men did trouble me
and persecute me sore :
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went away therefore.

158 And truth it is for grief I die
when I these traitors see :
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I do love thy laws,

With

with heart most glad and fain :
As thou art good and gracious Lord,
restore my life again.
160 What thy word doth decree must be
and so it hath been ever :
Thy righteous judgments are also most true and decay never.

SCHIN. The xxii. Part.

151 Princes have sought by cruelty,
causless to make me crouch:
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch.

152 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Than he that of rich spoils and prey,
great store and plenty had.

153 As for all lies and falsities,
I hate most and detest :
For why thy holy law do I above all things love best.

154 Seven times a day I praise the Lord singing with heart and voice Thy righteous acts and wonderful,
so cause me to rejoice.

155 Great peace & rest shall all such have
as do thy statutes love,
No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.

156 My only health and comfort Lord,
I look for at thy hand :
And therefore have I done those things,
which thou didst me command.

157 Thy laws have been my exercise which my soul most desir'd :
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd :

158 Thy statutes & commandements,
I kept (thou know'st) aright :
For all the things that I have done,
are present in thy sight.

TAU. The xxii. Part.

169 O Lord let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear :
And as thou haft me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.

170 Mine humble supplication, tow'r'd thee let find accept :
And grant me Lord deliverance,
for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak
after most ample fort :
When thou thy harutes haft me taught,
wherein standis my comfort.

172 My tongue shall sing & preach thy and on this wise say shall : (word, Gods famous acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech, and speedily me save :
For thy commandments to observe,
cho'en O Lord I have.

174 Of thee alone Lord I crave health,
for other I know none,

And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long days
thy name to magnifie :
And of thy judgments merciful
let me the favour try.

176 For I was lost and went astray,
much like a wandering sheep :
O seek me, for I have not fail'd thy commandments to keep.

PSALM CXX. T. S.

IN trouble and in thrall
Unto the Lord I call,

And he doth me comfort.

2 Deliver me, I say,
From lyars lips alway,
And tongues of false report.

3 What vantage or what thing
Get'th thou thus for to sting,
Thou false and flattering lyar.

4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,
No less than arrow keen,
Of hot consuming fire.

5 Alas too long I slack
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedar's are by name
By whom the flock elect,
And all of Isaac's seed
Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did here
I came a peace to make
And set a quiet life.

7 But when my tale was told,
Cruelless I was controld
By them that would have strife.

PSALM CXXI. W. W.

I Lift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That succour God me send.

2 The mighty God me succour will Which heaven and earth framed,
And all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve
And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep :

4 Lo he that doth Israel conserue,
No sleep at all can him catch,
But his eyet shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover,
As at thy right hand ever.

6 The Sun shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the Moon not half so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distress
And will thy life sure save,
And thou shalt also have

In all thy busines good success :
8 Where ever thou goest in or out
God will thy things bring about.

PSALM

PSALM Cxxii. W. K.

I Did in heart rejoice,
To hear the peoples voice,
In offering so willingly:
For let us up, say they,
And in the Lord's house pray,
Thus spake the folk full lovingly.
2 Our feet that wandered wide,
Shall in thy gates abide,
O thou Jerusalem full fair:
3 Which art so seemly set Much like a City near,
The like whereof is not elsewhere,
4 The Tribes with one accord,
The Tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take:
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
Their Prayers should together make.
5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
To set forth justice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintain
To Davids house pertain,
His folk to judge accordingly.
6 To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalems peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightily:
7 Peace be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughout Thy palaces continually.
8 I wish thy prosperous state,
For my poor brethrens sake,
That comfort have by means of thee:
9 Gods house doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure,
So much always as lies in me.

PSALM Cxxiii. T. S.

O Lord that heaven doft posses,
I lift mine eyes to thee:
Even as the servant lifteth his his masters hands to see.
2 As handmaids watch their misfris hands
Some grace for to achieve:
3 we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.
3 Lord grant us thy compassion,
and mercy in thy sight:
For we are fill'd and overcome with hatred and despight.
4 Our minds be stift with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wise
Do make of us their mocking stocks,
the proud do us despise.

PSALM Cxxiv. W. W.

Now Israel
may say, and that truly:
if that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd,
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd,
Then all the world
against us furiously

Made their uproars,
and said we should all die:
3 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all:
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem,
4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall:
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall.
5 The raging stream
most proud and roaring noise,
Had long ago
o'rewhelm'd us in the deep.
6 But lov'd be God,
which doth us safely keep From bloody teeth,
and their most cruel voice;
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoice.
7 Even as a bird
out of the Fowler's gin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us:
Broke are their nets,
and we have escaped thus,
8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then:
His name hath sav'd
us from the wicked men.

PSALM Cxxv. W. K.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand,
The Lord will count them right and just
So that they shall be sure
For ever to endure.
2 As mighty mountains, huge and great Jerusalem about do close:
So will the Lord do unto those,
Who on his godly will do wait:
Such are to him so dear.
They never need to fear.
3 For though the righteous try doth he
By making wicked men his rod:
Let they through grief forsake their God,
It shall not as their lot still be.
4 Give Lord, to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right:
5 But as for such as turn aside,
By crooked ways which they out-stougt
The Lord will surely bring to nought:
With workers vile they shall abide:
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same by R. W.
T hose that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God only,
And lie to him for their defence,
In all their need and misery:

their

Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone,
Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still,
Stedfast like to the mount Sion:

And as about Jerusalem,
The mighty hills do it compass,
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that town in any case:
So God indeed in-every need
His faithful people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly,
The finners and ungodly rod,
To tarry upon his family.
Left they also from God should go,
Failing to sin and wickedness:
O Lord defend world without end
Thy Christian flock through thy goodness.

O Lord do good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy Word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide.
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end:
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the Holy Ghost, whose light
Shine in our hearts and us succour,
That the right way from day to day
We may walk and him glorifie:
With hearts desirous all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say Amen.

When that the Lord
Again his Sion had forth brought From bondage great and also servitude extreme;
His work was such as did surmount mans heart and
So that we were (thought,
much like to them that use to dream,
Our mouths they were
with laughter filled then,

And eke our tongues
did shew us joyful men.
a The heathen folk were forced then this to confess:
How that the Lord
for them also great things had done.

b But much more we,
and therefore can confess no less:
Wherefore to joy,
we have good cause as we begun.

c O Lord go forth,
thou canst our bondage end;
As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.

d Full true it is,
that they which sow in tears indeed,

A time will come,
when they shall reap in mirth and joy,
e They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seed:
For that their foes
full oftentimes did them annoy:
But their return
with joy they shall sure see:
Their heaves home bring,
and not impaired be.

P S A L M . Cxxvii. W. W.

E XCEPT the Lord the house doth stand,
And thereunto doth set his hand,
What men do build it cannot stand,
Likewise in vain men undertake,
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morn,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with brown bread:
Yet were your labour lost and worn:
But they whom God doth love and keep Receive all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark well when ever ye see
That men have heirs to enjoy their land,
It is the gift of Gods own hand.

For God himself doth multiply,
Of his great liberality,
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and activeness,
In person and in comeliness:

So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.
5 O well is he that hath his quiver
Furnish'd with such artillery:
For when in peril he shall be,
Such one shall never shoke nor shiver
When that he pleads before the Judge,
Against the foes that bear him grudge.

P S A L M Cxxviii. T. S.

BLESSED art thou that fearest God
and walkest in his way:
a For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happy art thou, I say.
b Like fruitful vines on thy house side;
so doth thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like olive plants thy table round about:
c Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see d The promised Jerusalem,
and her felicity.
e Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
to thy great joys increase:
And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperity and peace.

P S A L M Cxxix. N.

O BT they (now Israel may say)
me from my youth assail'd
2. Oft they assail'd me from my youth,

- yet never they prevail'd.
 3 Upon my back the plowers plow'd,
 and furrows long did cast:
 4 The righteous God hath cut the cords of wicked foes at last.
 5 They that hate me shall be ashamed, and turned back also:
 6 And made as grass upon the house,
 which with'reth ere it grow.
 7 Whereof the mover cannot find enough to fill his hand:
 Nor can he fill his lap that go'ath
 to glean upon the land.
 8 Nor passers by pray God on them
 to let his blessing fall:
 Nor say, We bless you in the Name of God the Lord at all.

PSALM Cxxx. W. W.

- Lord to thee I make my moan,
 When dangers me oppress:
 1 call, I figh, plain and groane,
 trutning to find release.
 2 Hear now, O Lord, my request,
 for it is full due time:
 And let thine ears ay be prest,
 unto this prayer mine.
 3 O Lord our God, if thou weigh our sins, and them peruse:
 Who shall then escape and say,
 I can my self excuse?
 4 But, Lord, thou art merciful,
 and turn'ft to us thy grace:
 That we with hearts most careful should fear before thy face.
 5 In God I put my whole trust,
 my soul waits on his will:
 For his promise is most just,
 and I hope therein still.
 6 My soul to God hath regard,
 waiting for him alway,
 More than they that watch and ward
 to see the dawning day.
 7 Let Israel then boldly
 in the Lord put his trust:
 Be it that God of mercy,
 that his deliver must.
 8 For he it is that must save
 Israel from his sin:
 And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

PSALM Cxxxii. M.

- O Lord, I am not pust in mind,
 I have no scornful eye:
 I do not exercise my self
 in things that be too high.
 2 But as the child that weaned is even from his mothers breast:
 So have I Lord, behav'd my self in silence and in rest.
 3 O Israel trust in the Lord,
 in him be all thy stay;

From this time forth for evermore,
 from age to age, I say.

PSALM Cxxxii. M.

- Remember Davids troubles Lord,
 how to the Lord he swore:
 2 And vow'd a vow to Jacobs God,
 to keep for evermore.
 3 I will not come within my house,
 nor climb up to my bed,
 Nor let my temples take their rest,
 nor the eyes in my head.
 4 Till I have found out for the Lord,
 a place to sit thereon:
 5 An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.
 6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
 there did we hear this sound:
 And in the fields and forrests there,
 these voices first were found.
 7 We will assay, and go in now
 his tabernacle there:
 Before his foot-stool to fall down
 and worship him in fear.
 8 Arise, O Lord, arise, I say,
 into thy resting place:
 Both thou & the Ark of thy strength,
 the presence of thy grace.
 9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
 with truth and righteousness:
 Let all thy Saints, and holy men
 sing all with joyfulness.
 10 And for thy servant Davids sake
 refuse not Lord, I say,
 The face of thine anointed, Lord,
 nor turn thy face away.

The second Part.

- 11 The Lord to David swore in truth
 and will not shrink from it:
 Saying, the fruit of thy body
 upon thy seat shall sit:
 12 And if thy Sons my Covenant keep,
 that I shall learn each one:
 Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.
 13 The Lord himself hath chose Sion,
 and loves therein to dwell:
 Saying, this is my resting place,
 I love and like it well.
 14 And I will bleis with great increase her viciuals every where:
 And I will satisfie with bread
 the needy that be there.
 15 Yea I will deck and cloth her Priests,
 with my salvation:
 And all her Saints shall sing for Joy
 of my protection.
 16 There will I surely make the horn of David for to bud:
 For there I have ordain'd for mine
 a lantern bright and good.
 17 As for his enemies, I will clothe

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyful for to see Brethren together fast to hold the band of amity !
3 It calls to mind the sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment,
Which on the Sacrificer's head
by Gods precept was spent.
4 It were not Aarons head alone but drencht his beard throughout :
And finally it did run down
his rich attire about.
4 And as y lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill :
And Sion with his silver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill.
5 Even so the Lord doth pour on them
his blessings manifold :
Whose hearts & minds without all guile
this knot do keep and hold.

P S A L M Cxxxiv. W. W.

B Behold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord :
Which in his house by night do watch,
praise him with one accord.
3 Lift up your hands on high,
unto his holy place :
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.
4 For why ? the Lord who did both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion bless, and will conserue for evermore the same.

P S A L M Cxxxv. N.

O Praise the Lord, praise him, praise praise him with one accord : (him,) O praise him still all ye that be the servants of the Lord.
3 O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord :
Ye of his court and of his house,
praise him with one accord.
3 Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
sing praises to his Name :
It is a comely and good thing,
always to do the same,
4 For why ? the Lord hath chose Jacob his very own you see :
So hath he chosen Israel,
his treasure for to be.
3 For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great :
He is indeed above all gods
most easie to intreat :
6 For whatsoever pleased him
all that full well he wrought
In heaven, in earth, and in the sea

which he hath made of nought.

7 He lifts up clouds ev'n from the earth
he makes lightnings and rain :
He bringeth forth the winds also,
he made nothing in vain.

8 He smote the first-born of each thing
in Egypt that took rest :
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

9 He hath in thee shew'd wond'ri gret :
O Egypt void of vaunts :
On Pharaoh thy cursed King,
and his severe servants.

10 He smote then many nations,
and did great acts and things :
He slew the great and mightiest,
and chiefeſt of their Kings.

11 Sehon King of the Amorites and Og King of Bashan :
He slew also the Kingdoms all that were of Ganaan.

12 And gave their land to Israel,
an heritage we see,
To Israel his own people
an heritage to be.

The second Part.

13 Thy Name (O Lord) shall still endure and thy memorial ,
Throughout all generations
that are or ever shall.

14 The Lord will surely now avenge
his people all indeeds
And to his servants he will shew favour in time of need.

15 The idols of th' heath'n are made the works even of mens hands.

their mouths be breathlesſ quite,

18 Wherefore all they are like to them,
that do set them forth :
And likewise those that trust in them,

19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord :
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

20 And ye that be of Levies house,
praise ye likewise the Lord :
And ye that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.

the great praise of the Lord, 2
Which dwelleth in Jerusalem,
praise him with one accord.

When as we late in Babylon,
the rivers round about :
And in remembrance of Sion,
the tears for grief burst out.
2 We hang'd our harps & instruments
the willow trees upon :
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.
3 Then they to whom we prisoners were said to us tauntingly :
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs and pleasant melody.
4 Alas, said we, who can once frame
his sorrowful heart to sing
The praises of our loving God
thus under a strange King ?
5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide :
Then let my fingers quite forget the warbling harp to guide.
6 And let my tongue within my mouth,
be ti'd for ever taft :
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore (O Lord) remember now
the cursed noise and cry
That Edoms sons against us made,
when they raz'd our City.
Remember Lord their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cry'd, on, sack and raze their walls,
in despight of the Lord.
8 Even so shalt thou O Babylon, at length to dust be brought :
And happy shall that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea blessed shall that man be call'd,
that takes thy children young :
To dash their bones against hard stones,
that lie the streets among.

P S A L M Cxxviii. N.

Thee will I praise with my my Lord my God always : (heart)
Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.
2 Toward thy holy Temple, I will look and worship thee :
And praised in my thankful mouth
thy holy Name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth withhold :
For thou thy Name hast by thy word advanced over all.
3 When I did call, thou hearest me,
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength within my soul to grow.
4 Yea all the Kings on earth, they shall give praise to thee O Lord :
For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.
5 They of the ways of God the Lord
in singing shall intreat :
Because the glory of the Lord is exceeding great.
6 The Lord is high, and yet he doth behold the lowly sprite :
But he (contemning) knows afar
the proud and lofty wight.
7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand Renewed by thee, O my Lord, thou wilt stretch out thy hand
Upon the wrath of all my foes, and saved shall I be
By thy right hand : the Lord God perform his work to me.
8 Thy mercy Lord indires for aye,
Lord do me not forsake :
Forsake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

P S A L M Cxxix. N.

O Lord thou hast me try'd & known
my sitting thou dost know 2 And rising eke, my thoughts afar thou understand'st also.
3 My paths, yea and my lying down
thou compassest always :
And by familiar custom art acquainted with my ways.
4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord
but known it is to thee :
5 Thou me behind hold'st & before thou lay'st thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderful above my reach,
Lord is thy cunning skill :
It is so high, that I the same cannot attain until.
7 From fight of thy all-seeing Spirit
Lord whether shall I go ?
Or whither shall I flee away,
thy presence to escape fro ?
8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
lo thou art present there :
In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou dost appear.
9 Yea let me take the morning wing,
and let me go and abide :
Even there where are the farthest parts
where flowing sea doth slide.
10 Yea, even thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide :
D 5

And

And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.
11 Yea, if I say, the darkness shall yet shroud me from thy sight:
12 Lo ev'n also the darkest night
about me shall be light.
13 Yea darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darkness and the light,
are both alike alway.

The second Part.

14 For thou possessedst hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me,
When I within my mothers womb
inclosed was by thee.
15 Thee will I praise, made fearfully,
and wondrously I am :
Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.
16 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.
17 When I was formless, then thine eye
saw me, for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before,
that after fashion took.
18 The thoughts therefore of thee, O
how dear are they to me ? God,
And of them all how passing great
the endless number be !
19 If I should count them, lo, their sum more than the sand I see :
And whosoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.
20 The wicked and the bloody men,
O that thou wouldest stay :
Even those, O God, to whom depart,
depart from me I say.
21 Even those of thee (O Lord my God)
that speak full wickedly :
Those that are listed up in vain,
being enemies to thee.
22 Hate I not they that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wife ?
Contend I not against them all,
against thee that arise ?
23 I hate them with unfeigned hate,
even as my bitter foes :
24 Try me (O God) and know my heart
my thoughts prove and disclose, 25 Consider Lord if wickedness
in me there any be :
And in thy way (O God) my guide
for ever lead thou me.

PSALM Cxli. N.

Lord save me from the evil man,
and from the cruel wight
And from all those which evil do imagine in their sprite.
26 Which make on me continual war,
their tongues to have they wher.

3 Like Serpents underneath their lips is Adders poison set.
4 Keep me (O Lord) from wicked hands, preserve me to abide Free from the cruel man that means to cause my steps to slide.
5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way, and grin
for me eke have they set.
6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone :
Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and moan.
7 O Lord my God, thou only art
the strength that faveh me :
My head in day of battle hath been covered still by thee.
8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked have the end of his desire :
Perform not his ill thoughts, lest he
with pride be set on fire.
9 Of them that compass me about,
the chiefest of them all,
Lord let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall.
10 Let coals fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame :
And in deep pits so as they may not rise out of the same.
11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight :
And evil to destruction still shall haunt the cruel wight.
12 I know the Lord th' afflicted will revenge and judge the poor :
13 The just shall praise thy name, & shall dwell with thee evermore.

PSALM Cxli. N.

O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord haft thee unto me :
And hearken Lord unto my voice
when I do cry to thee.
2 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eyes :
And the up-lifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.
3 My Lord for guiding of my mouth
set thou a watch before :
And also of my moving lips,
O Lord keep thou the door.
4 That I should wicked works commit, incline thou not my heart :
With ill men of their delicacies,
Lord let me eat no part.
5 But let § righteous smite me, Lord,
for that is good for me :
Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oyl shall be.
Such smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their misery make prayers for them all.

Then

- 6 Then when in stony places down
their Judges shall be cast :
Then shall they hear my words, for then And in me was my troubled heart
they have a pleasant rafe. amazed and affright.
7 Our bones about y grave's mouth, 5 Yet I record time past in all lo scattered are they found : thy works I meditate ;
As he that beweth wood, or he Yea in thy works I meditate,
that diggeth up the ground. that thy hands have creat.
8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes 6 To thee, O Lord, my God, lo I do look up unto thee : do stretch my craving hands :
In thee is all my trust, let not My soul desirer after thee,
my soul forsaken be. as do the thirsty lands.
9 Which they have laid to catch me in, 7 Hear me with speed, my spirit & th fail
Lord keep me from the snare : hide not thy face me fro :
And from the subtil gins of them Else shall I be like them that down

10 The wicked into their own nets 8 Let me thy loving kindness in together let them fall : the morning hear and know, While I do by thy help escape For in thee is my trust, shew me
the danger of them all. the way where I shall go.
P S A L M C x l i i . N .

B Efore the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry :
And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.
2 My meditation in his sight
to pour I did not spare :
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.
3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee :
In way where I did walk a snare
they filly laid for me.
4 I look'd & view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know :
All refuge failed me, and for my soul none cared tho.
5 Then cry'd I Lord to thee, & said
my hope thou only art :
Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.
6 Hark to my cry for I am brought fall low : deliver me
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be,
7 That I may praise thy Name, my soul from prison, Lord, bring out :
When thou art good to me, the just shall press me round about.

P S A L M C x l i i i . N .

L ORD hear my prayer, hark to y plaint :
that I do make to thee :
Lord, in thy native truth, and in thy justice answer me.
2 In judgment with thy servant Lord,
O enter not at all :
For justifid be in thy sight,
not one that liveth shall.
3 The enemy hath puris'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown :
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long agone,

- 4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbred sprite,
And in me was my troubled heart amazed and affright.
5 Yet I record time past in all thy works I meditate ; Yea in thy works I meditate,
that thy hands have creat.
6 To thee, O Lord, my God, lo I do stretch my craving hands :
My soul desirer after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.
7 Hear me with speed, my spirit & th fail hide not thy face me fro :
Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.
8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know,
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.
9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord deliver me
From all mine enemies, for I have hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou thou art my God, I say :
Let thy good Spirit into the land of mercy me coavey.
11 For thy names sake with quickning alive do thou me make : (grace
And out of trouble bring my soul,
even for thy justice sake.
12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
O Lord destroy them all
That do oppres my soul : for I thy servant am and shall.

P S A L M C x l i v . N .

B Eleft be the Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight :
The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to battle by his might.
2 He is my goodness, fort and tower,
deliverer and shield :
In him I trust, my people he subdues to me to yield.
3 O Lord, what thing is man, ha' him
thou holdest so in prie :
Or son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise ?
4 Man is but like to vanity,
so pass his days to end,
As fleeting shade, bow down, O Lord,
the heavens and descend.

cast forth thy lightning flame,
And scatter them : thine arrows shor

O Lord deliver me :

of strangers make me free.

and fondness doth intreat :
And their right hand is a right hand
of falsehood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing, O God, and singing will I be On Viol, and on Instrument
ten-stringed unto thee.

10 Even he it is that only gives deliverance to Kings :
Who to his servant David help
from hurtful sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me save, and whose mouth talks vanity : (shield)
And their right hand is a right hand
o' guile and subtlety.

12 That our sons may be as ♀ plants,
whom growing youth doth rear :
Our daughters as carv'd corner-stones,
like to a palace fair.

13 Our garners full, and plenty may with sundry sorts be found,
Our sheep bring thousands in our streets ;
ten thousands may abound.

14 Our Oxen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade :
There be no goings out nor cries within our streets be made.

15 The people blest are that with such blessings are so stor'd :
Yea, blest all the people are,
whose God is God the Lord.

P S A L M Cxlv. N.

T HEE will I laud my God & King,
and bless thy Name for aye :

2 For ever will I praise thy Name,
and bless thee day by day.

3 Great is ♀ Lord, most worthy praise,
his greatness none can reach :

4 From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious Majestey
the beauty will record :

And meditate upon thy works
most wonderful, O Lord,

6 And they shall of thy power and of thy fearful acts declare :

And I to publish all abroad,
thy greatness will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great :

And I aloud thy righteousness
in singing shall repeat.

8 The Lord our God is gracious, and merciful also :

Of great abounding mercy, and to anger he is slow.

9 Yea good to all, and all his works
his mercy doth exceed :

10 Lo all thy works do praise thee, Lord,
and do thy honour spread,

11 Thy Saints do bless thee, and they do thy kingdom's glory show :

12 And blaze thy power to cause the sons of men thy power to know.

The second part.

13 And of his mighty kingdom she to spread the glorious praise :
Thy Kingdom Lord a kingdom is that doth endure always :
And thy dominion through each age
endures without decay :

14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall their sliding he doth stay.

15 The eyes of all do wait on thee,
thou dost them all relieve :

16 And thou to each sufficing food
in season due dost give.

17 Thou openest thy plenteous hand,
and bounteously dost fill

All things whatsoever do live,
with gifts of thy good will.

18 The Lord is just in all his ways,
his works are holy all :

19 Near all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.

20 He the desires which they require,
that fear him will fulfil :

And he will hear them when they cry,
and save them all he will.

21 The Lord preserves all those to him
that bear a loving heart :
But he them all that wicked are,
will utterly subvert.

22 My thankful mouth shall gladly speak
the praises of the Lord :

All flesh to praise his holy Name,
for ever shall accord.

P S A L M Cxvi. J. H.

M Y soul, praise thou ♀ Lord always,
my God I will confess : days,

2 While breath & life prolong my my tongue no time shall cease.

3 Trust not in worldly Princes then though they abound in wealth ;
Nor in the sons of mortal men,
in whom there is no health.

4 For why their breath doth soon depart,
to earth anon they fall :

And then the counseis of their heart
decay and perish all.

5 O happy is that man I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aid :
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.

6 Which made the earth & waters deep,
the heavens high withal :

Which doth his word and promise keep in truth and ever shall.

7 With right always doth he proceed,
for such as suffer wrong :

The poor and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the fettters strong.

8 The Lord doth send the blind their
the lame to limbs restore : (fight,

The Lord (I say) doth love the right and just man evermore.

9 He

- 9 He doth defend the fatherless,
and stranger sad in heart :
And quit the widow from distress,
and ill mens ways subvert.
10 Thy Lord and God eternally on Zion still shall reign :
In time of all posterity,
for ever to remain,

PSALM Cxlvii. N.

Praise ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to sing :
For it is pleasant, and to praise,
it is a comely thing.
2 The Lord his own Jerusalem,
he buildeth up alone :
And the disperst of Israel
doth gather into one.
3 He heals the broken in their heart
their fores up doth he bind :
4 He counts the number of the stars,
and names them in their kind.
5 Great is thy Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite :
6 The Lord relieves & meek, & throws to ground the wicked wight.
7 Sing unto God & Lord with praise, unto the Lord rejoice :
And to our God upon the harp,
advance your singing voice.
8 He covers heaven with clouds, & for the earth prepareth rain :
And on the mountains he doth make
the grass to grow again.
9 He gives to beasts their food, and to young Ravens when they cry :
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.
11 But in all those that fear the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight :
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light.

The second Part.

- 12 O praise the Lord Jerusalem,
thy God O Zion praise :
13 For he & bars hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he stays.
14 Thy Children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he Both settle peace, and with the flour
of wheat he filleth thee.
15 And his commandement upon the earth he sendeth out :
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly run about.
16 He giveth snow like wool, hoar-frost like ashes he doth spread :
17 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide ?
18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again :
His winds he makes to blow, & then the waters flow amain.

- 19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth show :
His statutes and his judgments he gives Israel to know.
20 With every Nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgments, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

PSALM Cxlviii. J. H.

Give laud unto the Lord,
From Heaven that is so high,
Praise him in deed and word,
Above the starry sky.

2 And also ye,
His Angels all Armies royal,

Praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both Moon and Sun,
Which are so clear and bright :
The same of you be done,
Ye glistering stars of light :

4 And eke no less,
Ye Heavens fair,

5 And clouds of the air,
His laud express.

6 For at his word they were All formed as we see :
At his voice did appear
All things in their degree,
Which he set fast,
To them he made
A law and trade,

For eke to last.

7 Extol and praise God's Name,
On earth ye Dragons fell :
All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes you well.

8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all
And trees that fruitful are :
The Cedars great and tall,
His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and cattle,
Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
That on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and less,
With all their pompous train :
Princes and all Judges
That in the world remain,

Exalt his Name.

12 Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,

Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we prove
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall

Exalt with blis.

Psalm Cxix. Cl.

The horn of his,
And help them all.
13 His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthiness :
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and less.
14 And also they
That with good will
His words fulfil,
And him obey.

PSALM Cxix. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God,
a new rejoicing song :
And let the praise of him be heard his holy Saints among.
3 Let Israel rejoice in him,
that made him of nothing :
And let the seed of Sion eke
be joyful in their King.
3 Let them sound praise with voice of unto his holy Name : (Flute, 3
And with the timbrel and the harp
sing praises of the same.
3 For why ? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set :
And by deliverance he will raise the meek to glory great.
5 With glory and with honour now let all his Saints rejoice :
And now aloud upon their beds advance their singing voice.
6 And in their mouths let be the acts of God the mighty Lord :

And in their hands like let them bear
a double edged sword.
7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands :
8 To bind their stately Kings in chains
their Lords in iron bands.
9 To execute on them the doom
that written is before :
This honour all his Saints shall have,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM Cl. N.

Yield unto God the mighty Lord
praise in his sanctuary :
And praise him in the firmament
that shews his power on high.
2 Advance his Name, & praise him in his mighty acts always :
According to his excellency of greatness give him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding trumpets blow :
Praise him upon the Viol, and upon the Harp also.
4 Praise him with Timbrel & with Flute, Organs and Virginals :
5 With sounding Cymbals, praise ye him,
praise him with loud Cymbals.
6 Whatever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord :
To praise the name of God the Lord agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalms of DAVID in Meeter.

VENI CREATOR.

Come Holy Ghost eternal God proceeding from above :
Both from the Father and the Son,
the God of peace and love.
Visit our minds, and into us
thy heavenly grace inspire :
That in all truth and godliness
we may have true desire.
Thou art the very Comforter
in all wo and distress :
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can express.
The fountain and the living spring
of joy celestial,
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and unition spiritual.
Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christ's Church doth stand,
In faithful hearts writing thy law,
the finger of God's hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace :
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in every place,

O Holy Ghost into our wits
send down thy heavenly light :
Kindle our hearts with fervent love
to serve God day & night.
Strengthen and establish all our weakness
so feeble and so frail :
That neither flesh, the world, nor devil against us do prevail.
Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God & man, without grudge or disdain.
And grant (O Lord) that thou being our leader and our guide :
We may eschew the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.
To us such plenty of thy grace
good Lord grant, we thee pray :
That thou maist be our comforter,
at the last dreadful day.
Of all strife and dissention,
O Lord, dissolve the bands :
And make the knots of peace & love
throughout all Christian lands.

Grant

The humble fute of a sinner.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee
the Father most of might:
That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the right.
And that with perfect faith also we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.
Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equal:
And to the Holy Spirit also,
one God co-eternal.
And pray we that the only Son vouchsafe his Spirit to send To all that do profess his Name, unto the worlds last end.
The humble fute of a sinner. M.
O Lord on whom I do depend,
behold my careful heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
Thou seest my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me.
But only thou whose aid I crave,
whose mercy still is preft,
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for ref.
And fith thou seest my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous groane:
Attend unto my fuit, O Lord,
mark well my plaint and moane.
For sin hath so enclosed me,
and compaft me about:
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain:
But even thy Christ my Lord & God,
who for my sins was slain.
Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortal eye,
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and fo I truft shall I.
Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the fight of him,
and see his wounds and blood,
And as thine Angels and thy Saints
do now behold the same,
So truft I to poffeſſ that place,
with them to praife thy Name.
But whilſt I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent:
Affift me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament.
Left that I tread the finners trace,
and give them my confeſſion,
To dwell with them in wickednes,
whereto nature is bent.
Only thy grace must be my stay,
left that I fall down flat;

Venite exultemus.

And being down then of my felf cannot recover that.
Wherefore this is yet once again
my fute and my request,
To grant me pardon for my fin,
that I in thee may ref.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praife:
And in thy Church & house of Saints sing Psalms to thee always.

Venite exultemus.

O Come and let us now rejoice,
And sing unto the Lord:
And to our only Saviour,
Also with one accord.

O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence,
Confefſing all our former fins,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefits,
Always diftributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Psalms now let us sing.
And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coaſts
Of all the world fo wide.

And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where:
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountains far and near.

The sea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord, and King,
And we his people are:
His flock, and ſheep of his paſture,
Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will hear his voice,
Then harden not your heart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in defart.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wildernes,
A great and grievous crime.

Whereas your fathers tempted me,
And try'd me every way:
They proved me, and ſaw my works,
What I could do or ſay.

These forty years have I been grievid
With this gen'ration:
And evermore I ſaid they err'd

Te Deum.

In their imagination,
Wherewith their hearts were sore cum-
Long time and many days:
Wherefore I said assuredly,
They have not known my ways.
To whom I in mine anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestial,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might art most:
To God the Father and the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was,
for ever heretofore:
And is now at this present time,
and shall be evermore.

The Song of Saint Ambrose, called Te Deum.

We praise thee God, we knowledg
the only Lord to be, (thee)
And as eternal Father all the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all Angels cry, the heavens,
and all the powers therein:
To thee Cherub and Seraphin, to cry they do not lin.
O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabbath Lord the God: Thro heaven and earth thy praise is and glory all abroad. (spread)
The Apostles glorious company yield praises unto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee continually.
The noble and victorious host of Martyrs found thy praise:
The holy Church throughout the world
doth knowledg thee always.
Father of endles Majest
they do acknowledge thee,
Thy Christ, thine honourable, true,
and only Son to be.
The Holy Ghost the Comforter,
of glory thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the Son everlasting.
When sinful mans decay in hand
thou tookeft to restore:
To be inclos'd in Virgins womb,
thou dideft not abhor.
When thou hadft overcome of death
the sharp and cruel might:
Thou heavens kingdom didft set ope
to each believing wight.
In glory of the Father thou dost sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
our cause to understand.
Lord help thy servants which thou hast

(bred) bought with thy precious blood:
And in eternal glory set them with thy Saints so good.
O Lord do thou thy people save,
bles thine inheritance,
Lord govern them, & Lord do thou for ever them advance.
We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy Name: O Lord, vouchsafe us to defend
From sin this day: have mercy Lord,
have mercy on us all:
And on us as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercie fall.
O Lord I have repented all
my confidence in thee:
Put to confounding shame therefore,
Lord let me never be.

The Song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

The only Lord of Israel
be praised evermore:
For through his visitation,
And mercy kept in store,
His people now he hath redeem'd,
That long have been in thrall:
And spread abroad his saving health
Upon his servants all.
In Davids house his servant true,
According to his mind:
And also his anointed King,
As we in Scripture find.
As by his holy Prophets all
Oft times he did declare:
The which were since the world began,
His ways for to prepare.
That we might be delivered
From those that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.
The mercy which he promised
Our Fathers to fulfil:
And think upon his covenant made,
According to his will.
And also to perform the oath
Which he before had sworn,
To Abraham our Father dear,
For us that were forelorn.
That he would give himself for us
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.
And that without all manner fear,
And eke in righteousness:
And also for to lead our lives
In stedfast holiness;
And thou(O Child) which now art born,
And of the Lord elect:
Shalt be the Prophet of the Highest,
His ways for to direct.
For thou shalt go before his face

Magnificat. Nunc dimittis.

For to prepare his ways :
 And also for to teach his will,
 And pleasure all thy days.
 To give them knowldg how that their Salvation is near :
 And that remission of their sins
 Is through his mercy meet :
 Whereby the day-spring from on high
 Is come us for to visit :
 And those for to illuminate,
 Which do in darknes fit.
 To lighten those that shadowed be
 With death and eke opprest :
 And also for to guide our feet
 The way to peace and rest.

The Song of the Blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soul doth magnifie the Lord
 My spirit eke evermore
 Rejoyceth in the Lord my God,
 Which is my Saviour.
 And why? because he did regard,
 And gave respect unto
 So base a state of his hand-maid,
 And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations,
 And generations all,
 From thistime forth for evermore
 Shall me right blessed call :
 Because he hath me magnified,
 Which is the Lord of might :
 Whose name be ever sanctified,
 And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
 All men he doth exalte :
 Throughout all generations,
 To such as fear his Name.

He shewed strength with his great arm,
 And made the proud to start,
 With all imaginations
 That they have in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ones
 From their supernal seat :
 And did exalt the meek in heart,
 As he hath thought it meet,

The hungry he replenished
 With all things that were good :
 And through his power he made the rich
 Oft times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
 His mercy every deal :
 Hath holpen up afflyantly
 His servant Israel.

According to his promise made To Abraham before :
 And to his seed successively,
 To stand for evermore.

The Song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord because my hearts desire Hath wilhed long to see :

The Lamentation of a sinner.

My only Lord and Saviour,
 Thy Son before I die.
 The joy & health of all mankind,
 Desired long before :
 Which now is come into the world,
 Of mercy bringing store.
 Thou suffereſt thy servant now
 In peace for to depart,
 According to thy holy Word,
 Which lighteneth my heart.
 Because mine eyes which ȳ haſt made
 To give my body light,
 Have now beheld thy aying health,
 Which is the Lord of might.
 Whom thou mercifully haſt set (Of thine abundant grace)
 In open sight and vibile,
 Before all peoples face,
 The Gentiles to illuminate,
 And Satan over-quell :
 And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

O The Lamentation of a sinner.
Lord turn not away thy face
 From him that lies prostrate:
 Lamenting sore his sinful life,
 Before thy mercy gate :
 Which gate thou openest wide to thofe
 That do lament their sin :
 Shut not that gate againt me Lord,
 But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine account
 How I have lived here :
 For then I know right well, O Lord,
 How vile I shall appear.

I need not to confess my life,
 I am sure thou canſt tell ;
 What I have been and what I am,
 I know thou knowſt it well.
 O Lord thou knowſt what things be past,
 And eke the things that be :
 Thou knowſt also what is to come,
 Nothing is hid from thee.
 Before heavens & earth were made
 Thou knowſt what things were then :
 As all things else that have been since
 Among the ſons of men :

And can the things ȳ I have done
 Be hidden from thee then ?
 Nay, nay, ȳ knowſt them all, O Lord,
 Where they were done, and when.
 Wherefore with tears I come to thee
 To beg and to intreat :
 Even as the child that hath done ill,
 And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
 Where mercy doth abound :
 Requiring mercy for my fin,
 To heal my deadly wound.
 O Lord I need not to repeat
 What I do beg and crave :
 Thou knowſt (O Lord) before I ask,

The Lords Prayer.

The thing that I would have.

Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the total sum,
For mercy Lord is all my suit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords Prayer or Pater Noster.

Our Father which in heaven art,
Lord hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, even as the same In Heaven is. Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so,
forgive our debts we pray.
Into temptation lead us not,
from evil make us free:
For kingdom, power, and glory thine
both now and ever be.

The Lords Prayer. D. COX.

Our Father which in heaven art,
And mak'it us all one brotherhood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God.
Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep figh and groane.

Thy blessed name be sanctified,
Thy holy Word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy Name.

From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poor sheep.

Thy kingdom come even at this hour
And henceforth everlastingly:
Thine Holy Ghost into us pour,
With all his gifts most plenteously.

From Satans rage & filthy band,
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven, in earth also:
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.

Let nor flesh, blood, or any ill
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from war and from blood-shed,
Also from sicknes, dearth and pine.

That we may live in quietnes,
Without all greedy carefulnes.

Forgive us our offences all,

Reieve our careful conscience:
As we forgive both great and small,
Which unto us have done offence.
Prepare us Lord for to serve thee
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord into temptation,
Lead us not when y fiend doth rage,
To withstand his invasion,
Give power & strength to every age.
Arm & make strong thy feeble host
With faith & with the Holy Ghost,

The ten Commandments.

O Lord from evil deliver us,
The days and times are dangerous,
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us.
A bleſſed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our souls receive.
For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou haſt power over all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universal.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have pray'd with one accord.

The ten Commandments of God.
Exod. 20. W. W.

Hark Israel, and what I say -
give heed to understand:
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from þ house wherein thou didst
in thraldom live a slave:
None other Gods at all before my preſence shalt thou have.
No maner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee:
Nor any figure like by thee shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in Heaven above
nor in the earth below:
Nor in the waters beneath the earth;
to them thou shalt not bow.
Nor shalt them serve; & Lord thy God
a jealous God am I:
That punish parents faults, unto
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do display,
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of þ Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use.:
For him that takes his Name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keep
the sacred sabbath day:
Six days thou labour shalt, and do thy needful works alway.

The seventh day the Lord thy God hath set to rest upon:
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy son,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine oxe, nor yet thine ass,
Nor stranger that within thy gates hath his abiding place.
For in six days, God heaven & earth,
and all therein did make:
And after those, his rest he did upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he bleſſed the day that he
for resting did ordain:
And sacred to himself alone appointed to remain.

The Ten Commandments.

Yield honour to thy parents, that Prolong'd thy days may be Upon the land, the which the Lord thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murther. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal. Nor witness false against thy neighbour be.
Thou shalt not cover house that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne cover shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong.
Nor his man-servant nor his maid,
nor ox nor ass of his:
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

Of ferly things I will thee tell:
See þy words in mind thou bear,
And to my precepts listen well.
1 I am thy Sovereign Lord and God, (thrall)
Which have thee brought from careful
And ek- reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod,
Make thee no gods on them to call:
2 Nor fashion'd form of any thing
In heaven or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sin wil smite.
3 Take not in vain his holy name,
Abuse it not after thy will,
For so þy might'ft soon purchase blame
And in his wrath he would thee spile.

And brought all things to perfet end
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods hefts ye may attend.
5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend:
That þ long days & good maist live
In earth, where God a place doth lend.
6 Beware of murther and cruel hate,
7 All filthy fornication fear,
8 See thou steal not in any rate.
9 False witness against no man bear.
10 Thy neighbors house wish not to have
His wife, or ought that he calls mine:
His field, his oxe, his ass, his slave,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer.

The spirit of grace grant us, O Lord
To keep these laws our hearts restore,
And cause us all with one accord,
To magnifie thy Name therefore.
For of our selves no strength we have To keep these laws after thy will:
Thy might therefore O Christ we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfil.
Lord for thy Names sake grant us this

The Complaint of a sinner.

Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ,
Of thee to speed how should we miss,
In whom our treasure doth consist.

To thee for evermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit always,

The Complaint of a sinner.

W here righteousness doth say,
Lord for my sinful part,
In wrath thou shoud'ft me pay Vengeance for my desert.

I can't not deny,
But needs I must confess,
How that continually
Thy laws I do transgress.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend:
Then all thy flock shall spill
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy sight,
Full oft and every day?

The Scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day 'gainst thee
Whereon thy wrath dependeth:
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and than
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands
That even the man right wife,
Falls oft in sinful hands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise.
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousness none have,
Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinful soul to save?

But truly to that post,
Whereto I cleave and shall:
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all:
The price of this thy blood,
Wherin mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare
No drop of blood in thee:
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet
So moist my heart so dry,
That I with sin repeat,
May live, and sin may die.

That being mortified,
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I never fall
Into such mortal sin,
That my foes infernal

And so he died in the flesh,

Da Pacem.

A Prayer to the Holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

Come Holy Spirit the God of might comforter of us all :
Teach us to know thy word aright, that we may never fall,
O Holy Ghost visit our coast, defend us with thy shield :
Against all sin and wickedness, Lord help us win the field.
Lord keep our King and his Council, and give them will and might
To persevere in thy Gospel, which can put sin to flight.
O Lord that giv'st thy holy Word, send Preachers plenteously :
That in the same we may accord, and therein live and die.
O Holy Spirit direct aright the Preachers of thy Word :
That by them maist cut down sin, as it were with a sword.
Depart not from thy Pastors pure, but aid them at their need,
Which break to us the bread of life, whereon our souls do feed.
O blessed Spirit of truth keep us in peace and unity :
Keep us from sects and errors all, and from all Papistry.
Convert all those that are our foes, and bring them to thy light,
That they and we may well agree, and praise thee day and night.
O Lord increase our faith in us, and love so to abound :
That man and wife be void of strife, and neighbours about us round.
In our time give thy peace, O Lord, to nations far and nigh :
And teach them all thy holy Word, that we may sing to thee.
All glory to the Trinity, that is of mighties most :
The living Father and the Son, and eke the Holy Ghost.
As it hath been in all the time that hath been heretofore :
As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore.

Da Pacem, Domine.

Give peace in these our days, O Lord, Great dangers are now at hand :

The Lamentation.

Thine enemies with one accord, Christ's name in every land,
Seek to deface, Root out and raze
Thy true right worship indeed : Be thou the stay,
Lord we thee pray, Thou help'st alone in all need.
Give us that peace which we do lack Through misbelief and ill life :
Thy Word to offer y' dost nor slack Which we unkindly gain-strive.
With fire and sword, This healthful word,
Some persecute and oppress : Some with the mouth, Confess the truth Without sincere godliness. Give peace, and us thy Spirit down send With grief and repentance true, To pierce our hearts our lives to mend,
And by faith in Christ renew.
That fear and dread War and blood-shed,
Through thy sweet mercy and grace May from us slide,
Thy truth may bide, And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord in thee is all my trust, give ear unto my woful cry,
Refuse me not that am unjust, But bowing down thy heavenly eye,
Behold how I do still lament, my sins wherein I do offend :
O Lord for them shall I be shent ? fith thee to please I do intend.
No, no, not so thy will is bent, to deal with sinners in thine ire :
But when in heart they shall repent, y grant'st with speed their just desire
To thee therefore still shall I cry, to wash away my sinful crime :
Thy blood O Lord, is not yet dry, but that it may help me in time.
Haste thee, O Lord, haste thee I say, to pour on me thy gifts of grace :
That when this life shall fit away, in heaven with thee I may have place :
Where thou dost reign eternally, with God which once did down thee
Where Angels sing continually, lead to take be praise world without end.

A FORM OF PRAYER to be used in private Houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning Prayer.

ALmighty God, and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majesty, trusting in our own merits or worthiness, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, & grant our requests which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord who hath also commanded us to assemble our selves together in his name, with full assurance that he will not only be amongst us, but also be our Mediator & Advocate towards thy Majesty, that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee (most merciful Father) to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold sins and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment, but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christ's sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom only thou art pleased, & through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing, that of thy great mercies we have quietly passed this night, grant (O heavenly Father) that we may before this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds, may redound to the glory of thy Name, & good example to all men, who seeing our good works may glorify thee our heavenly Father. And forasmuch as of thy mere favour and love, thou hast not only created us to thy own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdom, which thou preparedst for us before the beginning of the world, we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy Spirit, that we may in the mean time live in godly conversation and integrity of life, knowing that idolaters, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not only make request (O Lord) for our selves, and them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thine heavenly will, but for all people and nations of the world, who as they know by thy wonderful works, that thou art God over all, so they may be instructed by thine holy Spirit to believe in thee their only Saviour & Redeemer. But forasmuch as they cannot believe except they hear, nor cannot hear but by preaching, and none can preach except they be sent; therefore (O Lord) raise up faithful distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine only seek thy glory. Contrarily confound Satan, Antichrist, with all hirelings, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by lests, schisms, heresies, and errors, disquiet thy little flock. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the later days and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seeks by all means to quench the light of thy Gospel, we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those ravening wolves, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keep in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyranny, or to discourage thy children, neither yet let our sins and wickedness be an hindrance to thy mercies; but with speed (O Lord) consider their great misery. For thy people Israel many times by their sins provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgments; yet though their sins were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receivedst them to mercy, we therefore most wretched sinners

Prayers.

ners bewail our manifold sins, and earnestly repent us for our former wickedness & ungodly behaviour towards thee: & whereas we cannot of our selves purchase thy pardon, yes we humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christ's sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us (dear father) these our requests, and all other things necessary for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee, as he hath taught us, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Evening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting and full of pity, we acknowledge and confess that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much less to present our selves before thy Majesty, with confidence that thou wilt hear our prayers, & grant our requests, if we consider our own deservings. For our consciences do accuse us, and our sins do witness against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge which doest not justify the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgress thy commandments. Yet most merciful Father, since it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to help us when we feel our selves (as it were) swallowed up of death and desperation, we utterly renounce all wordly confidence, and flee to thy sovereign bounty as our only stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sins and wickedness, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us, neither our negligence and unkindness, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospel revealed unto us, but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thine holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same, and so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate, and such as thou hast forsaken cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name, but the repenting heart, the sorrowful mind, the conscience oppressed, hungry and thirsting for thy grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit we be but worms and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the work of thine hands; yea thou art our

Father, and we thy children: thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock: thou art our redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Correct us not therefore in thine anger, (O Lord) neither according to our deserts punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know that at what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sins from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickedness out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thine holy Prophets.

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make § night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to travel in, grant (dear Father) that we may so take our bodily rest, that our souls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortal life: and in the mean season that we, not overcome by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our minds upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee: furthermore that our sleep be not excessive or overmuch after the insatiable desires of our flesh, but only sufficient to content our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in godly conversation, to the glory of thine holy name & profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be given to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most dear Father of heaven, for all thy mercies & loving kindnesses shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodness, freely and of thine own accord to elect and chuse us to salvation before the beginning of the world. And even like continual thanks be given to thee, for creating us after thine own image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy dear Son, when we were yet lost; for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit in the revelation & knowledge of thy holy words; for helping and succouring us in all our needs & necessities; for saving us from all dangers of body and soul; for comforting us so fatherly in all our tribulations and persecutions; for sparing us so long, and giving us so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most merciful Father, like as we acknowledg'd have received them of thy only goodness, even so we beseech thee for thy dear Son Jesus Christ's sake, to grant us always thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted in all adversities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in ferventness & love towards thee, and our neighbours for my sake. Suffer us not, most dear Father, so receive thy word any more in vain: but grant us always the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, the true heart, word, & deed, we may sanctifie and do worship to thy Name; help to amplifie and increase thy kingdom, & whatsoever thou sendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not lack the thing (O Father) without the which we cannot serve thee: but bless thou so all the works of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpful unto others. Be merciful, O Lord, to our offences, and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven us in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, captain and defender in all temptations: hold thou us by thy merciful hand, that we may be deliver'd from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

Let thy mighty hand and out-stretched arm (O Lord) be still our defence: thy mercy and loving kindness in Jesus Christ thy dear Son our salvation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation unto the end, and in the end. So be it.

Lord increase our faith.

A Prayer to be said before a man begin his work.

O Lord God, most merciful Father and Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command us to travel that we may relieve our need, we beseech thee of thy grace so to bless our labor, that thy blessing may extend unto us, without the which we are not able to continue; and that this great favour may be a witness unto us of thy bountifulnesse assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast over us.

Moreover, O Lord, we beseech thee, & thou wouldst strengthen us with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully travel in our state and vocation without fraud or deceit, & that we may endeavour our selves to follow thine holy ordinance, rather than seek to satisfie our greedy affections, or desire to gain. And if it please thee (O Lord) to prosper our labour, give us a mind also to help them that have need, according to thy ability that thou of thy mercy shall give us; and knowing that all good things come of thee, grant that we may humble our selves to our neighbours & not by any means lift our selves above them which have not received so large a portion of thy mercies as thou hast given us. And if it please thee (O Lord) to try & exercise us by greater poverty & necessity than our flesh would desire; that thou wouldest yet (O Lord) grant us grace to know that thou wilt nourish us continually through thy bountiful liberality, that we be not so tempted, that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently wait till thou fill us, not only with corporal graces & benets, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spiritual treasures; to the intent that we may always have more ample occasion to give thee thanks, and wholly to rest upon thy mercies. Hear us (O Lord) of mercy, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, Amen.

A Confession for all estates and times.

O Eternal God and most merciful Father, we confess and acknowledge here before thy divine Majesty, that we are miserable sinners, conceived & born in sin and iniquity, so that in us there is no goodness: For the flesh evermore rebelleth against the Spirit, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy precepts and commandments, and so purchase to ourselves through thy just judgment, death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heavenly Father) forasmuch as we are displeased with our selves for the sins we have committed against thee, & do unfeignedly repent us of the same, we most humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercy upon us, to forgive all our sins, & increase thy holy Spirit in us, that we acknowledging from the bottom of our hearts our own unrighteousnes, may from henceforth not only forsake our sinful lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will; not for the worthiness thereof, but for the merits of thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our only Saviour, whom thou hast already given an exaltation and offering for our sins, and for whose sake we are certainly periuated, that thou wilt deny us nothing that we shall ask in his name, according to thy will. For thy Spirit doth allure our consciences, that thou art our merciful Father, and so lovest us thy children through him, that nothing is able to remove thy heavenly grace & favour from us. To thee therefore (O Father) with thy Son and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.
